BULLETIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Bethlehem Steel Corp. today became the third major steel producer to reject an administration plea for price restraint and raised the price of its steel bars.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. Steel Corp., rejecting a Johnson administration plea for price restraint, has ordered its third steel price increase within a month.

Just hours after Gardner Ackley, the President's top economic advisor, sent telegrams Thursday to steel producers asking them to hold off on further price boosts, U. S. Steel raised the price of its bar products 1.8 per cent.

The firm is the nation's top steel producer.

The increase, effective Monday, was identical to one announced Wednesday by Republic Steel Corp., the No. 3 producer. The increases, covering 16 per cent of industry-wide shipments, amount to $3 and $4 a ton on various bar products.

Steel bars are used in a variety of end products, ranging from industrial fasteners to railroad car axles. Other major steel producers had no comment on Ackley's telegram, but said they were studying the new price hikes. But if the industry's price pattern holds, it can be expected to follow suit within the week.

This week's increase marks the first time in a year that big steel came face-to-face with the administration over prices. The White House and the Council of Economic Advisors called a price increase last August "inflationary."

Ackley avoided the word inflationary this time but called the price boosts distressing.

He said the addition of steel bars to products which have gone up in price since November rules out the possibility that the increases were selective and in some cases justified.

"They must be viewed as a consistent pattern that has resulted in higher prices for nearly half the steeel tonnage produced in this country," Ackley said.

The industry, in the past month alone, has raised prices on steel plate, canmaking steels

Senate Probers Speak Up

More Bombing Of North Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—A panel of investigating senators pressed for a major intensification of the air war against North Vietnam — but Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says the bombing already is "close to the point of saturation in terms of rational purpose."

"There is a strong suggestion, moreover," said Mansfield, "that to go much further would be meaningless except in the context of the barbarism of total war on the entire civilian population—a bombing back into the stone age."

The demand of the Senate military preparedness subcommittee for a bombing stepup that would include air raids on the Communist port of Haiphong added an angry new dimension to congressional debate on the Vietnam war.

Mansfield answered the Thursday report in advance with a strongly worded defense of the policy pursued by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and President Johnson.

He said later in an interview he stood by that Senate speech as his answer to the pressure for more bombing—and to criticism of McNamara studding the subcommittee report.

The Pentagon said it would have no comment on the report hastened into print by the panel which concluded Tuesday a three-week investigation of administration policy in the air war.

One of its key passages:

"The subcommittee is of the opinion that we cannot, in good conscience, ask our ground forces to continue their fight in South Vietnam unless we are prepared to press the air war in the North in the most effective way possible. This requires closing the Port of Haiphong, isolating it from the rest of the country, striking all meaningful targets with a military significance, and increasing the interdiction of the lines of communication from Red China."

"What is needed now is the hard decision to do whatever is necessary, take the risks that have to be taken, and apply the force that is required to see the job through," the report said.

It acknowledged these risks include the possibility of conflict with Communist China or the Soviet Union.

But the panel, advocating action against Haiphong, said that

As New School Year Nears

Ohio Teacher 'Dropouts' May Be Major Problem

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Teachers may prove to be a bigger "drop out" problem than students this year as 2,358,900 grade and high school students say goodbye to summer and return to their classrooms after Labor Day—an increase of some 39,034 students over opening day last year.

According to Wayne Carle, an assistant state superintendent of schools, the latest annual report shows a sharp decline in student dropouts. The report shows that 57 per cent of those students who enrolled in the first grade in 1944 graduated in 1956, whereas 76 per cent of those students enrolling in the first grade in 1954 graduated in 1966.

Ironically, the most serious problem now is the "dropout" teachers who have left Ohio classrooms barer than they've ever been. A recent survey showed that some 2,000 teachers are still needed for this year—mainly in the heavy population centers of northeast and southwest Ohio.

Rural counties are having their difficulties, too, as teachers either filter to the high paying school systems of neighboring states or leave the profession.

Pay increases for teachers made possible by the Ohio legislature may alleviate the situation somewhat, however.

Disputes May Hamper Start Of Some Schools

By The Associated Press

Routine back-to-school days loom for most of the nation's youngsters, but in some cities local school disputes that have been quietly simmering through the summer may mar the opening of classes.

The discord centers variously on teachers' salaries, desegregation, the omnipresent teacher shortage or simply overcrowding. One Delaware high school principal says even his school's rest rooms are going to be jammed.

In New York City Thursday the teachers union rejected the Board of Education's latest sal-

Reds' Terror Drive Mounts As South Viet Voting Nears

Crowd Middle Of City Despite Threat Of Terrorist Drive

SAIGON (AP) — Several thousand Vietnamese massed in the middle of Saigon today for the final joint rally of the presidential campaign despite a mounting terrorist campaign to scare voters away from Sunday's election.

As the team of U.S. observers sent by President Johnson watched from the rooftop terrace of a U.S. officers' hotel across the street, the presidential candidates made their last big appeals for the support of the voters.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, the military candidates for president and vice president, were still expected to win.

Saigon was peppered by four small-scale terrorist attacks in the last 24 hours in which three Vietnamese were wounded and a terrorist was killed. Other Red harassments dotted the nation, but the major Red campaign to terrorize the voters was taking place in the politically shaky five northern provinces.

Sketchy reports from those provinces of the 1st Corps area said guerrillas kidnaped at least 200 people in the past few days, including 65 early today. A Viet Cong band entered a hamlet a few miles from Da Nang before dawn, awakened the villagers and herded off most of the men, including the village chief.

South Vietnamese officials suspected that they were taken as hostages to scare their relatives into heeding Viet Cong orders to boycott the election.

The 22 American election observers spent their second day talking with election officials and voters in cities and towns throughout the country. Those who attended the rally in the capital heard an English translation of the candidates' speeches over a loudspeaker on the hotel terrace.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, with an estimated 80 per cent of South Vietnam's 5.85 million registered voters expected to cast ballots.

Another 2.65 million Vietnamese of voting age either did not register or live in areas where the Viet Cong are strong enough to prevent any voting.

An estimated 90 per cent of South Vietnam's 700,000 servicemen will stand guard against Communist efforts to disrupt the election. The Red terrorism campaign has killed more than 150 civilians so far this week.

He placed this ad Thursday in the Rockford Morning Star and Rockford Register Republic: Colleen, hurry home. I admit I can't take care of the boys standing on my head. Hank.

Colleen is in a Rockford hospital where she gave birth Monday to their first daughter.

Increased 5 Cents To 13; Yield Put At $79 Million

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania smokers would be obliged to pay another five cents for a pack of cigarettes under legislation approved by the House Thursday.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a previously defeated bill that would raise the state tax on cigarettes from eight to 13 cents. The estimated yield would be an additional $79 million annually.

The vote was 102-89.

One Democrat joined 101 Republicans for the bill. Two Republicans joined 87 Democrats against it. It takes 102 votes to pass a measure in the House.

Republicans, trying to help Gov. Shafer balance his $1.79 billion budget, were two votes shy when they ran the bill on Wednesday. They picked up the votes by flying in Rep. William G. Piper, R-Berks, from Hawaii and persuading Rep. John T. Walsh, D-Allegheny, to change his vote from nay to aye.

"If they (the Republicans) can produce 101 votes today, I'll give them the 102nd vote," Walsh announced before the final roll call.

Walsh said he believed some new taxes were necessary to finance what he considered vital state programs.

The Democrats have charged that the Republicans' total $300

Storm Arlene Ruled Out As Threat To U.S.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Winds of tropical storm Arlene dwindled today as the season's first storm thrashed far at sea and was ruled out as a threat to the United States mainland.

At 6 a.m. the National Hurricane Center said the storm had continued to weaken about 1,800 miles east-northeast of Miami. Winds were estimated at 45 miles per hour in squalls within the storm.

"Arlene poses no threat to the U.S. mainland," said the 6 a.m. advisory.

Rhodes Signs Bill

Schools Benefit As Taxes Go Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Taxes went up in Ohio overnight for the sake of the schools.

Gov. James A. Rhodes signed at 12:01 a.m. today the recently passed bill that raises several state taxes and guarantees schools an additional $300.8 million for the current biennium, ending June 30, 1969.

"This legislation . . . has been lauded by our educators in both large and small districts as the most far-reaching improvement in education in the history of the state," Rhodes said in signing the bill.

"This legislation coupled with the regular appropriation will earmark for education $1,247,502,536, or almost 53 per cent of our entire general fund," he said at the signing ceremony attended by about 40 bakers of the measure, including legislators, educators and Ohio Education Association officials.

The most noticeable tax increases are a jump from 3 per cent to 4 per cent in the state sales tax and an increase from 5 cents to 7 cents per pack in the state tax on cigarettes. Food—unless eaten in a restaurant—is still excempt from the sales tax, but beer and cigarettes are now off the exempt list.

Another bill signed by the governor was the one permitting municipalities and townships to levy up to a 3 per cent tax on motel and hotel bills.

The corporate franchise tax, on the net worth of companies, goes from 3 mills to 4 mills.

The extra money for education will be shared by all levels, from elementary schools to colleges. Some $15 million will help buy books and other items for parochial schools. Teachers' salaries in public schools will go up at least $400 a year.

Rhodes singled out Sen. Oliver Ocasek of Northfield for special praise at the bill-signing ceremony. He said Ocasek, a strong backer and one of the few Democrats to vote for the bill, "rose above partisanship."

Ocasek told Rhodes that he considered the bill a fulfillment of the Rhodes' administration's pledge to give the schools No. 1 priority.

"I salute you as a man dedicated to the improvement of education in Ohio," Ocasek told Rhodes.

Legislative leaders signed 37 acts and an apportionment resolution Thursday at skeleton sessions of the House and Sen-

Soviet Bans Passage Of U.S. Vessels

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union, possibly fearing the United States seeks to spy on a major Soviet nuclear test site, has touched off a diplomatic battle by banning passage of two American icebreakers through an Arctic strait.

The Soviet action drew a strong U.S. protest Thursday. But Washington canceled the planned Arctic excursion while claiming the Soviet blockade violated international sea law.

A State Department spokesman said the icebreakers Edisto and East Wind, ostensibly on the first leg of a scientific mission to circle the Arctic, were denied Soviet permission to pafs through Vilkitsky Straits.

The ships originally had not planned to travel through the straits, said State Department press officer Carl Bartch, but were forced to seek an alternate route when blocked by massive ice jams. The area involved is within 500 miles of the North Pole.

Bartch told newsmen the U.S. Embassy in Moscow notified the Soviets Aug. 24 of the planned change in course. He said the Soviet Foreign Ministry said then and again Aug. 28 that passage of the ships through the straits would be considered a violation of Soviet krontiers.

Observers noted that one of the islands in the area is Novaya Zemlya, a major Soviet atomic test site.

Pledge Given Auto Workers By Chrysler

No Lockout, Firm Says If Another Company Is Struck

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. broke the auto industry silence today with a carefully worded statement inferring it would not lock out United Auto Workers Union members if the union struck some other company.

The development reinforced speculation that UAW President Walter P. Reuther has left himself little alternative but to challenge General Motors Corp. in search of a new contract.

Chrysler's statement came in response to a UAW query on whether each of the companies would like a contract extension if no agreement is reached by the 11:59 p.m. Wednesday expiration date of current three-year contracts.

It was the first of the automakers to reply. Chrysler's letter said the firm, smallest member of the Big Three automakers, was "interested in the continuity of operations of Chrysler Corp. plants beyond the terminal dates of the current agreement.

"We will continue to operate all plants of Chrysler Corp. after Sept. 6, 1967 — the termination date — if it is possible to do so," Chrysler's letter said.

Reuther has said that if no agreement is reached with the Big Three — GM, Ford and Chrysler — "there will be a strike in the auto industry."

But Reuther says the walkout

Two At U.S. Embassy Expelled From Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today ordered the expulsion of the press attache and agricultural attache of the U.S. Embassy.

The American Embassy had no immediate comment. Chapman was in Moscow. Meeker was out of the country.

Three More U.S. Planes Are Downed

Raises Losses In North Vietnam To 22 In Past 11 Days

SAIGON (AP) — The Communist terror campaign mounted sharply today. Meanwhile, the U.S. Command reported three more U.S. planes shot down over North Vietnam, raising losses in the North to 22 in the past 11 days.

The major Red campaign to terrorize voters before Sunday's presidential and senatorial elections was taking place in the politically sensitive five northern provinces. Fragmentary reports said guerrillas kidnaped no less than 200 people there in the past few days—about 65 of them early today.

A strong band of guerrillas entered Kim Nam hamlet a few miles from Da Nang, awakened the villagers and herded off most of the males including the village chief.

South Vietnamese authorities reported it likely that the kidnaped villagers were being held as hostages to ensure that their relatives boycotted the election according to Viet Cong instructions. Similar kidnapings have been reported in at least three other northern villages, and authorities fear that more are unreported.

Communist gunners inside and above the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam were harassing U.S. Marine positions with repeated mortar and artillery attacks evidently designed to emphasize Red strength during election time.

At least four Americans were killed and 57 were wounded. The Americans countered with radar-directed fire on Red gun positions, jet assaults on positions that were spotted and B52 strikes Thursday night and this morning on suspected enemy strongholds.

Other Communist attacks dotted the nation, particularly in the populous Mekong delta. Three villages were hit by mortars early today, and the guerrillas were reportedly deploying numerous small units to disrupt traffic on Highway 4, the main road from Saigon south into the delta.

U.S. Command reported the guerrillas early today tried to trick a U.S. Navy patrol boat into firing on a friendly village. The guerrillas opened up on the boat from within the village and

Schools Benefit As Taxes Go Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Taxes went up in Ohio overnight for the sake of the schools.

Gov. James A. Rhodes signed at 12:01 a.m. today the recently passed bill that raises several state taxes and guarantees schools an additional $300.8 million for the current biennium, ending June 30, 1969.

"This legislation . . . has been lauded by our educators in both large and small districts as the most far-reaching improvement in education in the history of the state," Rhodes said in signing the bill.

Soviet Bans Passage Of U.S. Vessels

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union, possibly fearing the United States seeks to spy on a major Soviet nuclear test site, has touched off a diplomatic battle by banning passage of two American icebreakers through an Arctic strait.

The Soviet action drew a strong U.S. protest Thursday. But Washington canceled the planned Arctic excursion while claiming the Soviet blockade violated international sea law.

A State Department spokesman said the icebreakers Edisto and East Wind, ostensibly on the first leg of a scientific mission to circle the Arctic, were denied Soviet permission to pafs through Vilkitsky Straits.

The ships originally had not planned to travel through the straits, said State Department press officer Carl Bartch, but were forced to seek an alternate route when blocked by massive ice jams. The area involved is within 500 miles of the North Pole.

Bartch told newsmen the U.S. Embassy in Moscow notified the Soviets Aug. 24 of the planned change in course. He said the Soviet Foreign Ministry said then and again Aug. 28 that passage of the ships through the straits would be considered a violation of Soviet krontiers.

Observers noted that one of the islands in the area is Novaya Zemlya, a major Soviet atomic test site.

Pledge Given Auto Workers By Chrysler

No Lockout, Firm Says If Another Company Is Struck

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. broke the auto industry silence today with a carefully worded statement inferring it would not lock out United Auto Workers Union members if the union struck some other company.

The development reinforced speculation that UAW President Walter P. Reuther has left himself little alternative but to challenge General Motors Corp. in search of a new contract.

Chrysler's statement came in response to a UAW query on whether each of the companies would like a contract extension if no agreement is reached by the 11:59 p.m. Wednesday expiration date of current three-year contracts.

It was the first of the automakers to reply. Chrysler's letter said the firm, smallest member of the Big Three automakers, was "interested in the continuity of operations of Chrysler Corp. plants beyond the terminal dates of the current agreement.

"We will continue to operate all plants of Chrysler Corp. after Sept. 6, 1967 — the termination date — if it is possible to do so," Chrysler's letter said.

Reuther has said that if no agreement is reached with the Big Three — GM, Ford and Chrysler — "there will be a strike in the auto industry."

Two At U.S. Embassy Expelled From Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today ordered the expulsion of the press attache and agricultural attache of the U.S. Embassy.

The Foreign Ministry accused the two men, R. Dabney Chapman and Brice K. Meeker, of "activities incompatible with their diplomatic status." No details were given.

The American Embassy had no immediate comment. Chapman was in Moscow. Meeker was out of the country.

Mercury Hits Chilly 38 In Some Areas

With temperatures in the 30's in some areas, September received a cool reception from East Liverpool and area residents as it moved in for a 30-day run on the weather stage.

TURNING COLD

A sample of what lies not too far off, the mercury dipped to 38 at Millport in the official reading at the U.S. weather station there.

It was a nippy 45 in downtown East Liverpool at 6 a.m.

And things are going to remain on the chilly side, at least through Saturday.

The forecast calls for clear and cool tonight, with the low in the 40's, and sunny and continued cool Saturday.

Prosperity Explodes In Wall Street

AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Prosperity has exploded in Wall Street's face.

So much stock is being bought and sold by affluent individuals and institutions that the brokerage firms have been unable to keep up with the paperwork involved in the flood of transactions.

As a result, the New York and American stock exchanges and several regional exchanges shortened their daily trading periods by 90 minutes for nine days last month to give brokers' clerical staffs more time for their chores.

The American appetite for investing money in corporation stocks has reached tremendous proportions in recent years.

In the first half of this year, 1,234,398,860 shares changed hands on the New York Stock Exchange—a daily average of 9.8 million. This compared to the 1,039,045,404 shares traded in the 1966 first half for a daily average of 8.2 million.

Trading also has rocketed upward on the American Stock Exchange, regional exchanges and the over-the-counter market.

Back in 1926, volume on the New York exchange was 601 million shares for the year. By 1966 it had ballooned to 2,205,700,000.

The trading pace has more than doubled since 1959, when the total was 1,039,000,000 shares and the daily average 3.2 million.

Since 1952, the U.S. stockholder population has increased from 6 million to 22 million. These investors were part owners of nearly 7,000 companies.

Chamber Slates Events Honoring Local Teachers

The public education committee of the Chamber of Commerce has arranged two events Tuesday to honor teachers as they prepare for the official opening of the 1967-68 school term on Wednesday.

The committee will conduct its traditional "coffee hour" prior to a general citywide teachers' meeting at 9 a.m. in Westgate School Auditorium. Members of the committee will serve coffee and pastry which will be provided by the East Liverpool Teachers Association.

The second event is set at 5:30 p.m. in the Westgate School cafeteria to honor approximately 35 new teachers and principals in the school system. A catered dinner will be served as part of the committee's welcome to the educators.

The group will be welcomed to the community and each individual will be presented with an information packet including a city map, a brochure on the area published by the Chamber and the Community Improvement Corp. and another publication listing area points of interest.

The committee is comprised of Leo Lawrence, chairman, Roger Babb, Robert Bernstorf, Paul H. Blair, Sam Brown, Nelson Hagerty, James Jordan, Edwin Maloney, Dr. C. M. Mayberry, Collin L. Neal and J. A. Roslund.

Met rookie pitchers Tom Seaver and Dan Frisella were teammates on the Fairbanks, Alaska Goldpanners in 1965, helping the team to the state semi-pro championship.

then fled. The Navy boat did not return the fire, authorities said.

North of Saigon, guerrillas blew up several small bridges on one of the larger roads about 20 miles above the city. U.S. engineers immediately started repairs and hoped to have traffic restored before Sunday.

Saigon police reported four terrorist strikes in the capital in the past 24 hours. One Red agent was shot and killed by a policeman he had just wounded with a pistol shot. Two Vietnamese were wounded by grenades.

The terrorism did not hinder election preparations in Saigon. Thousands turned out for a rally in the middle of the city at which the presidential candidates made their last joint appearance.

The three planes lost over North Vietnam Thursday brought to 669 the total of American combat planes officially reported lost in the air war against the Communist North that began nearly 32 months ago.

All three were U.S. Navy Skyhawk bombers, and the U.S. Command said the three fliers were missing. North Vietnam claimed eight American planes and a rescue helicopter were shot down and "a number" of U.S. pilots were captured.

U.S. spokesmen said 140 missions were flown Thursday and the raids penetrated deep into the heavily defended Hanoi-Haiphong complex. A missile site only three miles from Haiphong was reported heavily damaged, while other missions hit bridges, rail lines, truck convoys and storage depots.

U.S. Command said two attacks on rail yards 15 miles northwest of Haiphong and 15 miles south of Hanoi were particularly rewarding. Air Force pilots also reported destroying a bridge connecting Hanoi with the industrial complex of Thai Nguyen about 40 miles above the capital.

The intensified strikes on the Hanoi-Haiphong area have been exceptionally costly in fliers. Since Aug. 21, when the sharp upturn in plane losses began, 28 pilots have been lost and only four picked up by helicopter rescues.

Despite these losses, the men directing the air war say it is inflicting heavier damage on the North Vietnamese supply system. With only about two more months of good weather remaining before the monsoon changes, American airmen are determined to keep up the pressure.

Notices Given Voting Staffs

The Columbiana County Election Board today mailed notices of appointment to 1,008 men and women who will serve as judges and clerks in its 168 voting places at the November general election and the primarise in May 1968.

The appointments are for one year, according to Miss Rebecca Resnick, director of elections. The appointments are made on recommendations from Democratic and Republican committeemen in each precinct.

Each precinct is staffed by six persons, three from each major political party.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, Ohio's chief officer, has certified to the Columbiana County board and 87 others throughout the state the official form of ballot to be used for so called State Issue No. 1 in the Nov. 7 general election.

The issue deals with reapportionment of the Ohio General Assembly. It provides for an amendment to establish House of Representatives and Senate districts until the next federal census and to provide a method for apportionment of both houses into single member districts beginning in 1973 and continuing every 10 years there after.

The ballot will call for a "Yes" or "No" response by the voter. It will require a majority affirmative vote for passage. Brown pointed out three statewide issues initially had been anticipated for the fall ballot, but two did not materialize.

Sir Winston Churchill called Russia "a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma."

County Seeks Reductions In Speed Limits

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners adopted a resolution Thursday asking the State Highway Department to reduce the 60 mile - per - hour speed limit on two county roads.

They are requesting a limit between 30 and 40 miles an hour on County Rd. 433 (New Waterford - East Palestine Rd.) a distance of 1.07 miles, and a 40-mile an hour limit on County Rd. 414 (Lisbon - Franklin Square) from the Route 45 junction northward 4.55 miles to Route 344 at Franklin Square.

County Engineer John Ursu said residents along the roads petitioned for reduced speed limits. The state earlier this week reduced speed limits on three county roads at the commissioners' request.

Commissioners employed Mrs. Lena Gibson of Lisbon as a retarded workshop specialist at $400 per month effective today.

The janitor's job at the retarded school was reclassified from ¾ths to full time and Francis Barber, of Lisbon, former bus driver for the retarded school, was hired as custodian at $220 per month.

Ralph H. Rose of Lisbon was hired to replace Barber as bus driver. He will work ¾th time and receive $198 per month.

Commissioners paid the City of Wellsville $33.50 for 67 stray dogs destroyed last month. The commissioners' next meeting will be Sept. 7 since the Courthouse will be closed Monday for Labor Day.

Claimed In Sleep At 97

Mrs. 'Daisy' Harriman, Democratic Figure, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. J. Borden (Daisy) Harriman, who led a busy, zestful life from "a box seat at the America of my times" and who became a well-loved figure in the Democratic party, is dead at 97.

Mrs. Harriman died in her sleep Thursday night in her Georgetown home, surrounded by the mementos of a crowded life as socialite, campaign worker, crusader for social rights and pioneer woman diplomat.

"I hope," she once told an interviewer after detailing her life story, "I make it sound electric, for it was."

Born Florence Jaffray Hurst, the daughter of a wealthy British ship owner, she dubbed herself "Daisy" as a child because of her fondness for a daisy-trimmed hat.

After her marriage at 19 to a New York banker who was second cousin to W. Averill Harriman, now deputy secretary of state, she helped establish the Colony Club, New York City's first social club devoted exclusively to women.

Her life was soon to take a different course.

She met Franklin D. Roosevelt when a group of New Yorkers set up milk stations for the poor. Soon she was campaigning for certified milk, against child labor and helping to establish a rest farm for tubercular patients.

In 1906, Gov. Charles Evans Hughes appointed her manager of the New York Reformatory for Women.

Six years later, enthusiasm for Woodrow Wilson, ignited while she was attending the Democratic National Convention as a spectator, led her to form Women for Wilson. It was the first womens' group active in a political campaign and marked the beginning of her long association with the Democratic party and its central figures.

She held many public posts, and in 1922 founded the Women's National Democratic Club.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Edward Shott, a former Cincinnati attorney who was disbarred after being convicted of unlawful sale of securities, faces trial next month for evading federal income taxes.

Vietnam

then fled. The Navy boat did not return the fire, authorities said.

North of Saigon, guerrillas blew up several small bridges on one of the larger roads about 20 miles above the city. U.S. engineers immediately started repairs and hoped to have traffic restored before Sunday.

Saigon police reported four terrorist strikes in the capital in the past 24 hours. One Red agent was shot and killed by a policeman he had just wounded with a pistol shot. Two Vietnamese were wounded by grenades.

The terrorism did not hinder election preparations in Saigon. Thousands turned out for a rally in the middle of the city at which the presidential candidates made their last joint appearance.

The three planes lost over North Vietnam Thursday brought to 669 the total of American combat planes officially reported lost in the air war against the Communist North that began nearly 32 months ago.

All three were U.S. Navy Skyhawk bombers, and the U.S. Command said the three fliers were missing. North Vietnam claimed eight American planes and a rescue helicopter were shot down and "a number" of U.S. pilots were captured.

U.S. spokesmen said 140 missions were flown Thursday and the raids penetrated deep into the heavily defended Hanoi-Haiphong complex. A missile site only three miles from Haiphong was reported heavily damaged, while other missions hit bridges, rail lines, truck convoys and storage depots.

U.S. Command said two attacks on rail yards 15 miles northwest of Haiphong and 15 miles south of Hanoi were particularly rewarding. Air Force pilots also reported destroying a bridge connecting Hanoi with the industrial complex of Thai Nguyen about 40 miles above the capital.

The intensified strikes on the Hanoi-Haiphong area have been exceptionally costly in fliers. Since Aug. 21, when the sharp upturn in plane losses began, 28 pilots have been lost and only four picked up by helicopter rescues.

Despite these losses, the men directing the air war say it is inflicting heavier damage on the North Vietnamese supply system. With only about two more months of good weather remaining before the monsoon changes, American airmen are determined to keep up the pressure.

Elsie Moore Jones of Wellsville was bound to the Columbiana County grand jury on a charge of grand larceny stemming from the theft Aug. 11 of $150 from Robert Warren while he was taking a shower in an East Liverpool motel.

Oesch of Rogers RD 1, speeding for condition, continued until Oct. 5 for Driver Improvement Program; William J. Sattler of Rogers RD 1, improper passing, $15 and costs.

Notices Given Voting Staffs

The Columbiana County Election Board today mailed notices of appointment to 1,008 men and women who will serve as judges and clerks in its 168 voting places at the November general election and the primarise in May 1968.

The appointments are for one year, according to Miss Rebecca Resnick, director of elections. The appointments are made on recommendations from Democratic and Republican committeemen in each precinct.

Each precinct is staffed by six persons, three from each major political party.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, Ohio's chief officer, has certified to the Columbiana County board and 87 others throughout the state the official form of ballot to be used for so called State Issue No. 1 in the Nov. 7 general election.

The issue deals with reapportionment of the Ohio General Assembly. It provides for an amendment to establish House of Representatives and Senate districts until the next federal census and to provide a method for apportionment of both houses into single member districts beginning in 1973 and continuing every 10 years there after.

The ballot will call for a "Yes" or "No" response by the voter. It will require a majority affirmative vote for passage. Brown pointed out three statewide issues initially had been anticipated for the fall ballot, but two did not materialize.

Sir Winston Churchill called Russia "a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma."

County Seeks Reductions In Speed Limits

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners adopted a resolution Thursday asking the State Highway Department to reduce the 60 mile - per - hour speed limit on two county roads.

They are requesting a limit between 30 and 40 miles an hour on County Rd. 433 (New Waterford - East Palestine Rd.) a distance of 1.07 miles, and a 40-mile an hour limit on County Rd. 414 (Lisbon - Franklin Square) from the Route 45 junction northward 4.55 miles to Route 344 at Franklin Square.

County Engineer John Ursu said residents along the roads petitioned for reduced speed limits. The state earlier this week reduced speed limits on three county roads at the commissioners' request.

Commissioners employed Mrs. Lena Gibson of Lisbon as a retarded workshop specialist at $400 per month effective today.

The janitor's job at the retarded school was reclassified from ⅝ths to full time and Francis Barber, of Lisbon, former bus driver for the retarded school, was hired as custodian at $220 per month.

Ralph H. Rose of Lisbon was hired to replace Barber as bus driver. He will work ¾th time and receive $198 per month.

Commissioners paid the City of Wellsville $33.50 for 67 stray dogs destroyed last month. The commissioners' next meeting will be Sept. 7 since the Courthouse will be closed Monday for Labor Day.

Mrs. 'Daisy' Harriman, Democratic Figure, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. J. Borden (Daisy) Harriman, who led a busy, zestful life from "a box seat at the America of my times" and who became a well-loved figure in the Democratic party, is dead at 97.

Mrs. Harriman died in her sleep Thursday night in her Georgetown home, surrounded by the mementos of a crowded life as socialite, campaign worker, crusader for social rights and pioneer woman diplomat.

"I hope," she once told an interviewer after detailing her life story, "I make it sound electric, for it was."

Born Florence Jaffray Hurst, the daughter of a wealthy British ship owner, she dubbed herself "Daisy" as a child because of her fondness for a daisy-trimmed hat.

After her marriage at 19 to a New York banker who was second cousin to W. Averill Harriman, now deputy secretary of state, she helped establish the Colony Club, New York City's first social club devoted exclusively to women.

Her life was soon to take a different course.

She met Franklin D. Roosevelt when a group of New Yorkers set up milk stations for the poor. Soon she was campaigning for certified milk, against child labor and helping to establish a rest farm for tubercular patients.

In 1906, Gov. Charles Evans Hughes appointed her manager of the New York Reformatory for Women.

Six years later, enthusiasm for Woodrow Wilson, ignited while she was attending the Democratic National Convention as a spectator, led her to form Women for Wilson. It was the first womens' group active in a political campaign and marked the beginning of her long association with the Democratic party and its central figures.

She held many public posts, and in 1922 founded the Women's National Democratic Club.

Disbarred Attorney Faces Tax-Skip Trial

CINCINNATI (AP) — Edward Shott, a former Cincinnati attorney who was disbarred after being convicted of unlawful sale of securities, faces trial next month for evading federal income taxes.

U.S. District Judge Timothy Hogan said Thursday that a psychiatric examination showed Shott is competent to stand trial. Shott is now serving a one-to-five-year term in the Ohio Penitentiary for violating the securities law.

Abraham Lincoln had four children, all boys.

Changing Times In Great Britain

New stories describing domestic and international problems of Great Britain epitomize changing times in that country.

The nation's economic health is so bad it precipitated a government shakeup that saw Prime Minister Harold Wilson assume full control and responsibility of its future.

The seriousness of the country's economic affairs is reflected in the fact that no other prime minister has ever seen fit to take such drastic action in peacetime.

The British lion also is being hamstrung on other economic fronts.

French President Charles de Gaulle has successfully kept Britain out of the European Economic Community, better known as the Common Market.

Also, the British Labor government has been unable to make peace with Prime Minister Ian D. Smith of Rhodesia in the split over Rhodesia's declaration of independence. The British-instigated economic blockade has failed to bring Mr. Smith in line.

On the international front, British relations with Red China are deteriorating daily.

The British mission in Peking has been attacked. Communist Chinese have battled constables in London and Communist harassment continues in the British colony of Hong Kong.

It hasn't been too many years ago that such provocation by the Chinese would have reaped quick punitive measures.

Prime Minister Wilson is trying to rally his forces for a peacetime offensive on a level with the country's storied response to ill fortune in times of war.

What the outcome of the anti-British surge by Communists will be depends to a large extent on how far Red China pushes the issue; but in the case of British economy, Prime Minister Wilson is staking his political future on a principle stated by Disraeli more than 100 years ago: "The English nation is never so great as in adversity."

Shirley Grows Up

The entrance of Mrs. Charles (Shirley Temple) Black into the arena of politics may be a little difficult for the public to accept.

Not on the basis that Mrs. Black is unqualified to be California's 11th District representative to the U. S. Congress, but because she still is followed by her sweet little girl image from former movie days.

That cute, little girl with bouncy curls who sailed the "Good Ship Lillipop" just doesn't seem to fit the part of a hard-hitting, back-slapping, go-for-broke politician.

Mrs. Black recognizes the problem and declared at her press conference that "little Shirley Temple isn't running" for the office.

So maybe it wasn't a case of complete miscasting. Some things she picked up in her movie trade will come in handy—like script memorizing, holding a smile and good acting.

We suppose that if anyone can get used to the idea that Shirley Temple has a 19-year-old son, he can accept the fact her pinafore can take some political mud-spattering.

Brutality Claims Exaggerated

A new Gallup Poll confirms the belief held by many Americans that police brutality charges are mostly bad lip service from those who have an ax to grind.

A total of 77 per cent of those questioned said they had a great deal of respect for the police in their area — 7 per cent more than in a 1965 poll.

"Some" respect was reported by 17 per cent and only 4 per cent indicated "hardly any" respect.

With police brutality charges getting a big play in riot-torn cities, the vote of confidence must be encouraging to members of the thin blue line.

To cover another side of the issue, Gallup pollsters asked interviewees if they thought police brutality existed in other parts of the nation. The response was "no" by an overwhelming 81 per cent.

Significantly, in those cities where riots have occurred the response followed the same pattern as in other communities.

The answers by Negroes questioned in the poll parallelled those of whites.

In view of the poll, where did all the complaints originate?

The charges obviously come from people who have come into contact with law enforcement officers doing their job.

Many of the protestors who have been roughed up were swinging and kicking at the arresting officers but didn't want him to defend himself.

It is true that a small percentage of police officers overstep the line of proper conduct. That is why stories appear from time to time reporting the dismissal of officers.

We can be counted with the vast majority of Americans who support the work of police departments and feel the claims of brutality are highly exaggerated.

Time For Courage

Floyd J. McCree's decision to remain as mayor of Flint, Mich., is the right one.

Mayor McCree two weeks ago had announced his intention of resigning following the defeat of an open occupancy ordinance by the Flint City Commission.

Mr. McCree is the first Negro mayor of Flint. The city is the nation's largest with a Negro mayor. For Mr. McCree to have left his position of influence would have been a grave mistake.

He would have been derelict in his duty to those who placed their confidence in him by voting him into office.

The problems facing Flint's 25 per cent Negro and 75 per cent white population are like those facing other cities in the nation.

Patience, understanding and cooperation are all prerequisites for tackling the acute problems.

George Washington once said during the American Revolution: "Under a full persuasion of the justice of our cause, I cannot entertain an idea that it will finally sink tho' it may remain for sometime under a cloud."

It is another way of saying the magnitude of a trying but just cause must be matched by the courage of those seeking its solution.

Fighting City Slum Crisis

Sen. Mike Mansfield and some of his colleagues are pushing hard for approval of President Johnson's $7 billion program for cities.

The money is to be channeled into an assortment of measures for aid to education, antipoverty work, crime control and rat extermination.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., feels passage of the package will require a lot of arm twisting. He may be right. Congressmen are divided on the proper approach to the city crisis. There is much disenchantment with phases of the anti-poverty program.

Congressmen are aware of the staggering costs involved in correcting city slum conditions and are justly cautious in keeping spending at a level that can be met.

President Johnson's entire proposal may not be approved by a sizable portion will make it. There is no getting around the fact there must be some type of frontal attack on decaying ghettos.

Certainly not as a reward for those who rampaged in the streets but as an expression of concern, hope and vindication for those who did not.

Odd Facts

Hail storms can be hazardous to the unprotected man. For example, a hailstone of three to four inches in diameter (not uncommon) can weigh up to a pound and fall at speeds of from 90 to 110 miles an hour, and the effect of being struck by one of these would be much worse than being hit by the fastest baseball pitched.

The coal-mining leader of the United States is mountainous West Virginia. This state also ranks high in steel, glass, aluminum, and chemical manufacture, natural gas, quarry products and hardwood lumber.

Employment of married woman in the U. S. has increased by well over four million during the past 10 years, and the largest increase has been among the wives of men with "higher" incomes.

Berry's World

"Let's face it—girls with 'Alley Oop legs' shouldn't wear miniskirts!"

'If We Can Find The Key To That One, It'll Lead Right Into The White House!'

VICTOR RIESEL

British Smash Black Power

LONDON — The blunt words came quietly, but quite firmly, from one of Britain's highest leaders as we sat in one of the House of Commons' book-lined offices:

"The Labor government believes that all men are equal but no one is more equal than others simply because he is black, boisterous and inciting to riot. We won't have it."

Victor Riesel

Our conversation had centered around England's own Stokely Carmichael—a chap known variously as Michael X, Michael DeFreitas, and Michael Abdul Malkik. He is the violence-peddling, 34-year-old, black-bearded, self-styled Muslin "leader," the power in the "Racial Adjustment Action Society."

Michael X, an ex-seaman born in Trinidad, speadking with relish and gore of having murdered a white man, stood in for Carmichael in an upland city when Laborite Home Secretary Roy Jenkins ordered the "American" out of Britain permanently for attempting to whip up riots.

It is, of course consequential to note that Stokely Carmichael's associate here is a silk-shirted, chauffeur-driven, former rackateer who admits to having run brothels, strong-armed the poor, set Alatian dogs on them, and slept better after his first murder. More on this in a moment to show the kind of associate Stokely selects to speak for Britain's one million colored people (which, of course, he doesn't).

What is more immediate and vital to us Americans is the British Labor government's attitude toward those who would enflame the colored population of such "ghetto" cities as Manchester, Birmingham and Liverpool. Remember, this is a government of Socialists, ieft-wing and moderate, as well as of labor leaders. Every laborite member of Parliament must be a member of a trade union.

So, no one can call it fascist or extremist.

BUT THIS LABOR government sees no inconsistency in deporting aliens or indicting Britons who want to send hoodlums rioting and burning into the streets of their cities.

The Home Secretary, Roy Jenkins, is a veteran laborite. His ministry oversees Scotland Yard. Its special branch does not surrepitiously dispatch detectives to stake out in secret meetings called by such as Michael X. The police simply stand there with their notebooks, getting the quotes, making certain of witnesses. Then they dispatch their reports to Mr. Jenkins.

He has the authority to deport the incendiaries such as Carmichael and Michael X. DeFreitas. It is not considered inconsistent with the Labor Party's democratic precepts to send "the chap packing." In the U.S., this would be almost impossible. The courts would drag the affair out for years while cities burned.

The Laborites, feeling no sense of psychological insecurity, do not listen idly to talk of the killing of "white monkeys" spouted by the so-called Muslims. They are developing the record on such as Michael DeFreitas when he shouts outside a university like the London School of Economics that "violence has been perpetrated against us and we shall have to use the same methods."

The Labor government did not long tolerate Michael X s advocacy of "killing" white men.

This sort of talk of blood-letting, now so prevalent in the U.S., is a violation of the Race Relations Act which cuts two ways. It will punish the colored as well as white violators. Under this law all are equal.

It took the Queen's Counsel, the Rt. Hon. Sir Dingle Soot, and the police authorities exactly three weeks to bring in an indictment against the Muslim's Michael X after he substituted for Stokely Carmichael at a public meeting in Reading. The British racist was charged with "intent to stir up hatred against a section of the public in Great Britain distinguished in color."

He was accused of using words likely to stir up hatred against that section "on the grounds of color."

The gaily bedecked, purple-shirted, gold-spangled Muslim laughed it off—but he faces a sentence of two years in prison and a $2,800 fine. Not severe, but enough to teach him a lesson.

NOR ARE THIS government and its various commissions hesitant to launch "inquiries" before riots stir up bloody storms. One conference here called by the National Committee For Commonwealth Immigrants actually heard testimony from American labor officials. This government is not frightened of listening to anyone who can help, regardless of their origin.

Since riots and civil strife are everybody's concern, the Confederation of British Industries dispatched a prestigious delegation of its top leaders to a racial integration conference with an equally noted labor group at the Trades Union Congress haadquarters last June. Thus the British counterparts of the U.S. National Assn. of Manufacturers and the Chamber of Commerce discussed the common problem with the counterpart of the AFL-CIO.

But the Laborite Government is not waiting for commission or conference reports which will take eight to ten months. Nor is it piling up archives on which will rest the dust of royal tradition.

If a man has a racket record, the government is not bullied by his militant racial outcries. Thus in the case of Stokley Carmichael's counterpart here, the attorney general has Michael X's record. They know on what streets he ran his houses of prostitution. They know of his strong-arm work for a notorious slumlord called "Rachman" for whom Mike DeFreitas collected exhorbitant rents or frightened off poor families so their empty apartments could be leased at rentals beyond the rent-freeze limits. DeFreitas would smash gas meters, slash the electric power supply, sic dogs on the apartments of the poor, virtually all of them colored people.

He will not escape this record of violence and exploitation of his own people. He will not be permitted to unleash riots. The people here, white and black, know it.

Americans should know it too. They should know that his DeFrietas says he has been to Moscow and Cuba. They should know what manner of man is chosen by the Stokely Carmichaels. They should know that there is a government which does not believe it is indecent to crack down on the social racketeers before the hoodlums destroy society bit by bit.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Let's clean up the drive-in movies!

Our families used to enjoy going to a drive-in on a warm summer evening with the kiddies in the back seat, but it's absolutely impossible nowadays.

However, the other evening we ventured to see "Born Losers." And since there was nothing about it being an adult movie, we took our children. There were three carloads of us and by the end of the movie children were actually crying at the violence of the film.

We never have considered ourselves as "squares," as we like rock and roll, love teen-agers and enjoy fun as much as anyone. However, we also call trash "trash." The movie did not stop with vulgar, unethical language, but it actually contained oaths, along with nakedness and rape. This is not in any way artistical. It is simple down and out trash.

Do we want to send our teen-agers into these drive-ins with such stuff demonstrated on a full-size screen before them? We do not believe in protecting children from the true facts of life. But we do insist on a decent code of living.

Not five minutes after this movie was over, flashed on the screen was "You don't need a babysitter: bring the kiddies." Now get this!

However, this is nothing new as the whole summer has been the same at our local theater.

Now let's all go to the movie this week and see "The Trip" — starring an LSD user. And the ad says "it will blow your mind."

We are not alone in our opinion, as other people have said the same.

Incidents

What can a people do who don't want to go to war and yet wish to express their disapproval of the unfriendly acts of a foreign government?

For many years the severance of diplomatic relations has been a psychological way of expressing the disappointment of a nation offended by the action of another government. Today, however, this is proving inadequate, and speculation is arising as to what other measures might be effectively utilized. Though circumstances differ, there are three conspicous examples currently in the headlines in which governments in Europe and Asia have provoked resentment among peoples of other countries.

First, there is the case of the attack on the British Embassy in Peiping by Chinese "Red Guards." Despite this disgraceful performance and the injury to the families of the British diplomats in the building at the time, Red China has offered no public apology, and there are no signs that the incident is even regretted.

THE LONDON Daily Telegraph says editorially that Great Britain has been remarkably patient in similar incidents but must now seriously consider whether the closing of the embassy in Peiping and the expulsion of Chinese diplomats from London would be the proper policy to follow. The editorial continues:

"There are strong reasons for using it (the severance of diplomatic relations) against China unless full apology, compensation and guarantees for the future are promptly received -- which at present seem about as likely as that Chairman Mao will swim the English Channel.

"Formal relations with odious political regimes for the sake of expediency — so long as the rules of civilized behavior are observed — are one thing. Submission to deliberate insult, injury and danger to life and to property, is another. . . .

"Unless China shows quickly and convincingly that she will from now on conform to accepted diplomatic practice, the best thing is to exchange diplomats and nationals in the two countries and leave her in quarantine."

A second example of the indiscreet behavior of a foreign government is the case of General De Gaulle who, as a guest of Canada, deliberately violated the hospitality of that country by publicly endorsing a movement among French-speaking Canadians for a "Free Quebec." The Canadian government thus far has not reacted as angrily as it might, for there is a belief that the French president does not reflect the mapority opinion of the people of France.

Something of the same feeling prevails in the United States, where General De Gaulle's hostility to NATO and American participation in plans for the defense of Europe has produced an unfavorable attitude toward the French government. No diplomatic break has been suggested, but it is significant that many Americans have refrained from including France on their visits to Europe.

A THIRD EXAMPLE is the failure of the government of Czechoslovakia to punish those who were responsible for the death of Charles Jordan, an American who, with his family, was visiting Prague. There have been in the State Department and in Congress many efforts to improve relations with Czechoslovakia and other countries in the Communist Bloc of Eastern Europe. Suggestions have been made for extensive cultural exchanges and more visits between citizens. The latest episode, however, can prove discouraging to such attempts.

The idea of a "quarantine" mentioned by the London Daily Telegraph is not new. President Franklin D. Roosevelt made a famous speech on Oct. 5, 1937, calling for an international "quarantine" of aggressors. The world was reluctant at that time to apply even such a mild remedy, though the speech undoubtedly encouraged a widespread U.S. boycott against goods from Japan.

The theory behind a "quarantine" is that peoples have an opportunity to express their disapproval of a government abroad by refusing to buy the products on which its economy depends, and by declining to travel within its borders.

Changing Times In Great Britain

New stories describing domestic and international problems of Great Britain epitomize changing times in that country.

The nation's economic health is so bad it precipitated a government shakeup that saw Prime Minister Harold Wilson assume full control and responsibility of its future.

The seriousness of the country's economic affairs is reflected in the fact that no other prime minister has ever seen fit to take such drastic action in peacetime.

The British lion also is being hamstrung on other economic fronts.

French President Charles de Gaulle has successfully kept Britain out of the European Economic Community, better known as the Common Market.

Also, the British Labor government has been unable to make peace with Prime Minister Ian D. Smith of Rhodesia in the split over Rhodesia's declaration of independence. The British-instigated economic blockade has failed to bring Mr. Smith in line.

On the international front, British relations with Red China are deteriorating daily.

The British mission in Peking has been attacked. Communist Chinese have battled constables in London and Communist harassment continues in the British colony of Hong Kong.

It hasn't been too many years ago that such provocation by the Chinese would have reaped quick punitive measures.

Prime Minister Wilson is trying to rally his forces for a peacetime offensive on a level with the country's storied response to ill fortune in times of war.

What the outcome of the anti-British surge by Communists will be depends to a large extent on how far Red China pushes the issue; but in the case of British economy, Prime Minister Wilson is staking his political future on a principle stated by Disraeli more than 100 years ago: "The English nation is never so great as in adversity."

Shirley Grows Up

The entrance of Mrs. Charles (Shirley Temple) Black into the arena of politics may be a little difficult for the public to accept.

Not on the basis that Mrs. Black is unqualified to be California's 11th District representative to the U. S. Congress, but because she still is followed by her sweet little girl image from former movie days.

That cute, little girl with bouncy curls who sailed the "Good Ship Lillipop" just doesn't seem to fit the part of a hard-hitting, back-slapping, go-for-broke politician.

Mrs. Black recognizes the problem and declared at her press conference that "little Shirley Temple isn't running" for the office.

So maybe it wasn't a case of complete miscasting. Some things she picked up in her movie trade will come in handy—like script memorizing, holding a smile and good acting.

We suppose that if anyone can get used to the idea that Shirley Temple has a 19-year-old son, he can accept the fact her pinafore can take some political mud-spattering.

Brutality Claims Exaggerated

A new Gallup Poll confirms the belief held by many Americans that police brutality charges are mostly bad lip service from those who have an ax to grind.

A total of 77 per cent of those questioned said they had a great deal of respect for the police in their area — 7 per cent more than in a 1965 poll.

"Some" respect was reported by 17 per cent and only 4 per cent indicated "hardly any" respect.

With police brutality charges getting a big play in riot-torn cities, the vote of confidence must be encouraging to members of the thin blue line.

To cover another side of the issue, Gallup pollsters asked interviewees if they thought police brutality existed in other parts of the nation. The response was "no" by an overwhelming 81 per cent.

Significantly, in those cities where riots have occurred the response followed the same pattern as in other communities.

The answers by Negroes questioned in the poll parallelled those of whites.

In view of the poll, where did all the complaints originate?

The charges obviously come from people who have come into contact with law enforcement officers doing their job.

Many of the protestors who have been roughed up were swinging and kicking at the arresting officers but didn't want him to defend himself.

It is true that a small percentage of police officers overstep the line of proper conduct. That is why stories appear from time to time reporting the dismissal of officers.

We can be counted with the vast majority of Americans who support the work of police departments and feel the claims of brutality are highly exaggerated.

Time For Courage

Floyd J. McCree's decision to remain as mayor of Flint, Mich., is the right one.

Mayor McCree two weeks ago had announced his intention of resigning following the defeat of an open occupancy ordinance by the Flint City Commission.

Mr. McCree is the first Negro mayor of Flint. The city is the nation's largest with a Negro mayor. For Mr. McCree to have left his position of influence would have been a grave mistake.

He would have been derelict in his duty to those who placed their confidence in him by voting him into office.

The problems facing Flint's 25 per cent Negro and 75 per cent white population are like those facing other cities in the nation.

Patience, understanding and cooperation are all prerequisites for tackling the acute problems.

George Washington once said during the American Revolution: "Under a full persuasion of the justice of our cause, I cannot entertain an idea that it will finally sink tho' it may remain for sometime under a cloud."

It is another way of saying the magnitude of a trying but just cause must be matched by the courage of those seeking its solution.

Fighting City Slum Crisis

Sen. Mike Mansfield and some of his colleagues are pushing hard for approval of President Johnson's $7 billion program for cities.

The money is to be channeled into an assortment of measures for aid to education, antipoverty work, crime control and rat extermination.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., feels passage of the package will require a lot of arm twisting. He may be right. Congressmen are divided on the proper approach to the city crisis. There is much disenchantment with phases of the antipoverty program.

Congressmen are aware of the staggering costs involved in correcting city slum conditions and are justly cautious in keeping spending at a level that can be met.

President Johnson's entire proposal may not be approved by a sizable portion will make it. There is no getting around the fact there must be some type of frontal attack on decaying ghettos.

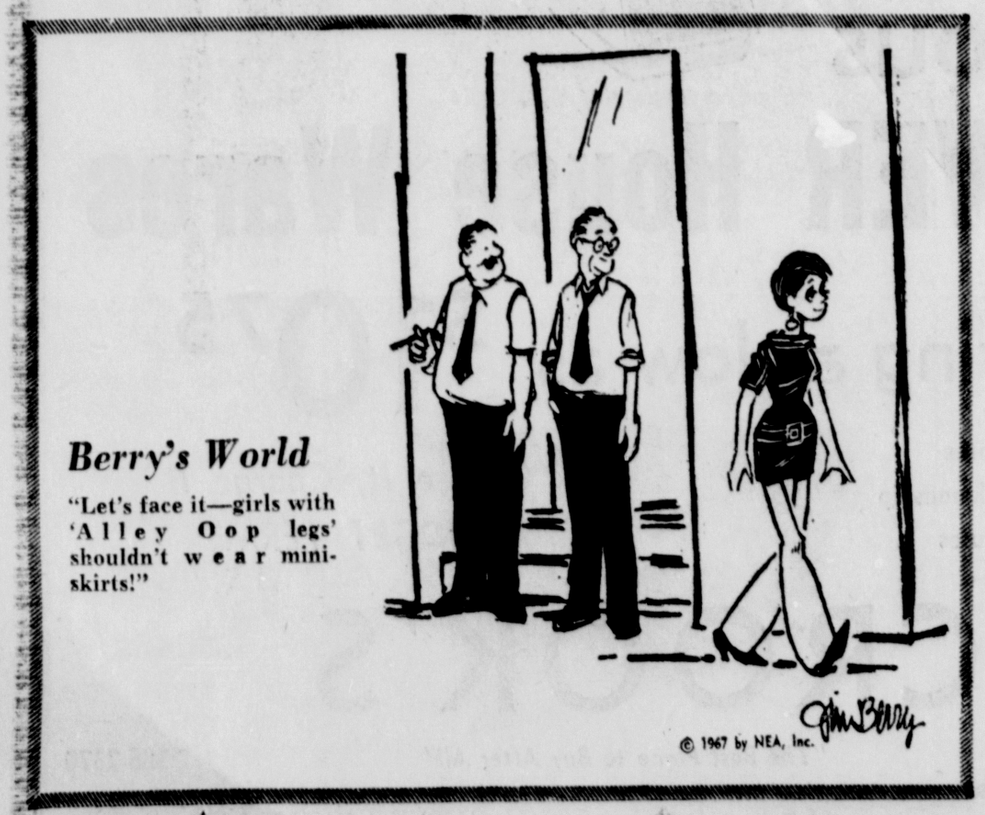
Certainly not as a reward for those who rampaged in the streets but as an expression of concern, hope and vindication for those who did not.

Odd Facts

Hail storms can be hazardous to the unprotected man. For example, a hailstone of three to four inches in diameter (not uncommon) can weigh up to a pound and fall at speeds of from 90 to 110 miles an hour, and the effect of being struck by one of these would be much worse thas being hit by the fastest baseball pitched.

The coal-mining leader of the United States is mountainous West Virginia. This state also ranks high in steel, glass, aluminum, and chemical manufacture, natural gas, quarry products and hardwood lumber.

Employment of married woman in the U. S. has increased by well over four million during the past 10 years, and the largest increase has been among the wives of men with "higher" incomes.



'If We Can Find The Key To That One, It'll Lead Right Into The White House!'

VICTOR RIESEL

British Smash Black Power

LONDON — The blunt words came quietly, but quite firmly, from one of Britain's highest leaders as we sat in one of the House of Commons' book-lined offices:

Victor Riesel

"The Labor government believes that all men are equal but no one is more equal than others simply because he is black, boisterous and inciting to riot. We won't have it."

Our conversation had centered around England's own Stokely Carmichael—a chap known variously as Michael X, Michael DeFreitas, and Michael Abdul Malkik. He is the violence-peddling, 34-year-old, black-bearded, self-styled Muslin "leader," the power in the "Racial Adjustment Action Society."

Michael X, an ex-seaman born in Trinidad, speadking with relish and gore of having murdered a white man, stood in for Carmichael in an upland city when Laborite Home Secretary Roy Jenkins ordered the "American" out of Britain permanently for attempting to whip up riots.

It is, of course consequential to note that Stokely Carmichael's associate here is a silk-shirted, chauffeur-driven, former rackateer who admits to having run brothels, strong-armed the poor, set Alatian dogs on them, and slept better after his first murder. More on this in a moment to show the kind of associate Stokely selects to speak for Britain's one million colored people (which, of course, he doesn't).

What is more immediate and vital to us Americans is the British Labor government's attitude toward those who would enflame the colored population of such "ghetto" cities as Manchester, Birmingham and Liverpool. Remember, this is a government of Socialists, ieft-wing and moderate, as well as of labor leaders. Every laborite member of Parliament must be a member of a trade union.

So, no one can call it fascist or extremist.

BUT THIS LABOR government sees no inconsistency in deporting aliens or indicting Britons who want to send hoodlums rioting and burning into the streets of their cities.

The Home Secretary, Roy Jenkins, is a veteran laborite. His ministry oversees Scotland Yard. Its special branch does not surrepitiously dispatch detectives to stake out in secret meetings called by such as Michael X. The police simply stand there with their notebooks, getting the quotes, making certain of witnesses. Then they dispatch their reports to Mr. Jenkins.

He has the authority to deport the incendiaries such as Carmichael and Michael X. DeFreitas. It is not considered inconsistent with the Labor Party's democratic precepts to send "the chap packing." In the U.S., this would be almost impossible. The courts would drag the affair out for years while cities burned.

The Laborites, feeling no sense of psychological insecurity, do not listen idly to talk of the killing of "white monkeys" spouted by the so-called Muslims. They are developing the record on such as Michael DeFreitas when he shouts outside a university like the London School of Economics that "violence has been perpetrated against us and we shall have to use the same methods."

The Labor government did not long tolerate Michael X s advocacy of "killing" white men.

This sort of talk of blood-letting, now so prevalent in the U.S., is a violation of the Race Relations Act which cuts two ways. It will punish the colored as well as white violators. Under this law all are equal.

It took the Queen's Counsel, the Rt. Hon. Sir Dingle Soot, and the police authorities exactly three weeks to bring in an indictment against the Muslim's Michael X after he substituted for Stokely Carmichael at a public meeting in Reading. The British racist was charged with "intent to stir up hatred against a section of the public in Great Britain distinguished in color."

He was accused of using words likely to stir up hatred against that section "on the grounds of color."

The gaily bedecked, purple-shirted, gold-spangled Muslim laughed it off—but he faces a sentence of two years in prison and a $2,800 fine. Not severe, but enough to teach him a lesson.

NOR ARE THIS government and its various commissions hesitant to launch "inquiries" before riots stir up bloody storms. One conference here called by the National Committee For Commonwealth Immigrants actually heard testimony from American labor officials. This government is not frightened of listening to anyone who can help, regardless of their origin.

Since riots and civil strife are everybody's concern, the Confederation of British Industries dispatched a prestigious delegation of its top leaders to a racial integration conference with an equally noted labor group at the Trades Union Congress haadquarters last June. Thus the British counterparts of the U.S. National Assn. of Manufacturers and the Chamber of Commerce discussed the common problem with the counterpart of the AFL-CIO.

But the Laborite Government is not waiting for commission or conference reports which will take eight to ten months. Nor is it piling up archives on which will rest the dust of royal tradition.

If a man has a racket record, the government is not bullied by his militant racial outcries. Thus in the case of Stokley Carmichael's counterpart here, the attorney general has Michael X's record. They know on what streets he ran his houses of prostitution. They know of his strong-arm work for a notorious slumlord called "Rachman" for whom Mike DeFreitas collected exhorbitant rents or frightened off poor families so their empty apartments could be leased at rentals beyond the rent-freeze limits. DeFreitas would smash gas meters, slash the electric power supply, sic dogs on the apartments of the poor, virtually all of them colored people.

He will not escape this record of violence and exploitation of his own people. He will not be permitted to unleash riots. The people here, white and black, know it.

Americans should know it too. They should know that his DeFrietas says he has been to Moscow and Cuba. They should know what manner of man is chosen by the Stokely Carmichaels. They should know that there is a government which does not believe it is indecent to crack down on the social racketeers before the hoodlums destroy society bit by bit.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Let's clean up the drive-in movies!

Our families used to enjoy going to a drive-in on a warm summer evening with the kiddies in the back seat, but it's absolutely impossible nowadays.

However, the other evening we ventured to see "Born Losers." And since there was nothing about it being an adult movie, we took our children. There were three carloads of us and by the end of the movie children were actually crying at the violence of the film.

We never have considered ourselves as "squares," as we like rock and roll, love teenagers and enjoy fun as much as anyone. However, we also call trash "trash." The movie did not stop with vulgar, unethical language, but it actually contained oaths, along with nakedness and rape. This is not in any way artistical. It is simple down and out trash.

Do we want to send our teen-agers into these drive-ins with such stuff demonstrated on a full-size screen before them? We do not believe in protecting children from the true facts of life. But we do insist on a decent code of living.

Not five minutes after this movie was over, flashed on the screen was "You don't need a babysitter; bring the kiddies." Now get this!

However, this is nothing new as the whole summer has been the same at our local theater.

Now let's all go to the movie this week and see "The Trip" — starring an LSD user. And the ad says "it will blow your mind."

We are not alone in our opinion, as other people have said the same.

Incidents

What can a people do who don't want to go to war and yet wish to express their disapproval of the unfriendly acts of a foreign government?

For many years the severance of diplomatic relations has been a psychological way of expressing the disappointment of a nation offended by the action of another government. Today, however, this is proving inadequate, and speculation is arising as to what other measures might be effectively utilized. Though circumstances differ, there are three conspicous examples currently in the headlines in which governments in Europe and Asia have provoked resentment among peoples of other countries.

First, there is the case of the attack on the British Embassy in Peiping by Chinese "Red Guards." Despite this disgraceful performance and the injury to the families of the British diplomats in the building at the time, Red China has offered no public apology, and there are no signs that the incident is even regretted.

THE LONDON Daily Telegraph says editorially that Great Britain has been remarkably patient in similar incidents but must now seriously consider whether the closing of the embassy in Peiping and the expulsion of Chinese diplomats from London would be the proper policy to follow. The editorial continues:

"There are strong reasons for using it (the severance of diplomatic relations) against China unless full apology, compensation and guarantees for the future are promptly received — which at present seem about as likely as that Chairman Mao will swim the English Channel.

"Formal relations with odious political regimes for the sake of expediency — so long as the rules of civilized behavior are observed — are one thing. Submission to deliberate insult, injury and danger to life and to property, is another. . . .

"Unless China shows quickly and convincingly that she will from now on conform to accepted diplomatic practice, the best thing is to exchange diplomats and nationals in the two countries and leave her in quarantine."

A second example of the indiscreet behavior of a foreign government is the case of General De Gaulle who, as a guest of Canada, deliberately violated the hospitality of that country by publicly endorsing a movement among French-speaking Canadians for a "Free Quebec." The Canadian government thus far has not reacted as angrily as it might, for there is a belief that the French president does not reflect the mapority opinion of the people of France.

Something of the same feeling prevails in the United States, where General De Gaulle's hostility to NATO and American participation in plans for the defense of Europe has produced an unfavorable attitude toward the French government. No diplomatic break has been suggested, but it is significant that many Americans have refrained from including France on their visits to Europe.

A THIRD EXAMPLE is the failure of the government of Czechoslovakia to punish those who were responsible for the death of Charles Jordan, an American who, with his family, was visiting Prague. There have been in the State Department and in Congress many efforts to improve relations with Czechoslovakia and other countries in the Communist Bloc of Eastern Europe. Suggestions have been made for extensive cultural exchanges and more visits between citizens. The latest episode, however, can prove discouraging to such attempts.

The idea of a "quarantine" mentioned by the London Daily Telegraph is not new. President Franklin D. Roosevelt made a famous speech on Oct. 5, 1937, calling for an international "quarantine" of aggressors. The world was reluctant at that time to apply even such a mild remedy, though the speech undoubtedly encouraged a widespread U.S. boycott against goods from Japan.

The theory behind a "quarantine" is that peoples have an opportunity to express their disapproval of a government abroad by refusing to buy the products on which its economy depends, and by declining to travel within its borders.

Exercises Sept. 14

Smith Will Join Globe Ceremony

West Virginia Gov. Hulett C. Smith will be guest of honor Sept. 14 at plant dedication ceremonies of Globe Refractories, Inc., near Newell.

Many prominent government and civic officials and leaders of industry from the tri-state area will join the governor in dedicating the ultra - modern Pouring Pit Refractory Plant.

Its construction represents a $3,500,000 expansion designed to produce higher quality refractory products faster and in greater quantity, company officials said. Its existence should help to strengthen the economic fibers of the surrounding areas.

William F. Porter, president of Globe Refractories, calls the plant "the largest and most highly - automated pouring pit refractory unit in the world." The 140,000-square-foot addition is capable of producing 22 million fire brick per annum using completely automatic procedures in the pressing, storing, car handling and firing phases of production.

THE PLANT contains a 632-foot tunnel kiln that is believed to be the longest of its kind in existence.

The automatic aspect of the new plant's processes permits pre - programming of a full day's work. Clay is automatically fed and blended into dry presses, where it is formed into bricks. The bricks then move by conveyor to setting machines to be stacked automatically on tunnel kiln cars. The cars move to a combination holding and drying room before entering the kiln where the temperature will reach 2000 degree F. Emerging from the kiln, the products are palletized and stored or shipped as needed.

Globe Refractories recently changed its name from the Globe Brick Co. to coincide with its long - range plan of product diversification. The company is a leading supplier of fire brick ladle linings and other refractory material used in making steel.

Tax

The House also passed $91.5 million in appropriations and authorization for eight new common pleas court judgeships in seven counties before joining the Senate in an extended Labor Day recess.

When the General Assembly returns Sept. 11, the Senate will have to wrestle with the cigarette tax legislation and a proposed $59.9 million increase in the corporate net income tax, approved by the House Wednesday.

The House still will have 161 million in proposed new taxes on its calendar, but whether Republicans can muster the 102 votes to pass them is another question.

"You ran your most attractive tax bills this week," Minority Leader Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, told Republicans in a floor speech. "You're going to have one ding-dong battle to pass the remainder of the package."

Among the tax proposals still before the House are levies on life insurance benefits, beer and liquor, trade-in values received on cars and appliances, in addition to other business taxes.

The judge bills, like the cigarette tax, also went down to defeat first time around. That was on July 19, when Republicans were not at full strength and Democrats put up near solid opposition.

Approved finally and sent to the Senate was authorization for two new judges in Delaware County and one each in Berks, Lebanon, Montgomery, Westmoreland, Bucks and Chester counties.

After the vote, the House Republican leadership discovered that five of the bills were defective and would have to be amended in the Senate.

The five, involving all but Delaware and Berks counties, were written with the intent that elections for judgeships would be held this November.

House Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson, R-Allegheny, said it was now too late for nominees to be placed on the ballot this year.

If approved by the Senate, and assuming the House concurs in the amendments, Gov. Shafer would appoint the judges to serve until after the 1969 election.

Beaver Falls Trucker Cited For Local Crash

Walter W. Zombeck Jr., 20, of Beaver Falls was cited by police Thursday after his backing pickup truck bumped the front of a halted auto on E. 5th St. at Washington St.

Zombeck was charged with improper backing after the collision that damaged the left front fender, grill and hood of a 1963 sedan operated by Mrs. Mildred Jean Zehnder, 36, of 1323 Fairmont St. Zombeck was driving a truck owned by Louis S. Belkowski, also of Beaver Falls. It was not damaged.

Zombeck said he was driving west on E. 5th St. when the traffic light at Washington St. suddenly turned red. He stopped and then began to back without seeing the Zehnder car halted behind him, Zombeck told Patrolman K. J. Montgomery.

Cincinnati rookie pitcher Gary Nolan turned in one of his most impressive victories on July 4 when he beat the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0. He gave up three hits, walked only two.

Teachers

ary offer but submitted a new proposal of its own as negotiations on a new contract moved to the critical state.

More than 30,000 of the city's 55,000 classroom teachers have signed resignations which the United Federation of Teachers threatens to submit to the board if a new contract is not reached by Sept. 11 when classes ar scheduled to begin.

In Clearwater, Fla., school officials and Pinellas County teachers agreed Thursday on a 14-point program calling for higher salaries to clear the way for resumption of classes in public schools.

Nearly 2,000 teachers had submitted resignations late Wednesday on the first day of the new school year. The agreement calls for salary increases ranging from $440 a year for new teachers with a bachelor's degree to more than 1,000 for beginning teachers with doctorates.

Meanwhile in Broward County, a larger system than Pinellas, the school board voted to close schools next Tuesday so teachers may attend a county 'professional day" called by their association.

The teachers have rejected the Broward board's promise o a base salary up to $6,000 next year, holding to their request for $5,615 for the school year begun last Monday.

Pinellas schools were the first in Florida to be closed since teachers launched a statewide campaign for higher salaries and more money for education.

Sanctions against the state have been invoked by the Florida Education Association and its parent organization, the National Education Association. Gov. Claude Kink has promised to annouce a new education program Sept. 5.

About two-thirds of the 800 public school teachers in East St. Louis, Ill., refused to work Thursday, the second day of school. Many of the 24,000 students were sent home.

Officials of Local 120 of American Federation of Teachers said their members were willing to return if the school board would discuss salary demands. The board has refused saying money is not available.

A desegregation plan in Providence, R.I., brought some 75 demonstrators to the city's school administrative offices Thursday night for a "sleep-in" protest.

The predominantly Negro group said they would stay until the school committee met with them to discuss the issue. The plan is scheduled to go into effect when classes start next Wednesday.

The demonstrators say they object to Negro children being bussed out of predominantly Negro south Providence to white schools in other parts of the city.

And in Venice, La., Negro and white pupils chanted "We want teachers! We want teachers!" Thursday as they picketed the Boothville-Venice school and refused to transfer to the Buras High School 10 miles away.

School officials decided to eliminate the 10th, 11th and 12th grades at the school because of a teacher shortage. Venice is 90 miles south of New Orleans in rich Plaquemines Parish.

Pittsburgh Area Man Kills Woman, Self

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Police say a man and woman are dead in an apparent murder-suicide.

Police said Ronald Danko, 29, of Homestead shot Clementine Moore, 35, with a .22 caliber pistol Thursday, then shot himself in the head.

Pittsburgh Gunman Nabs $10,000 From 2

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Police said an armed gunman grabbed $10,000 Thursday from two Pennsylvania Macaroni Co. employes about to deposit the money in a bank.

The bandit jumped out of an alley between the firm's wholesale house and the bank, took the money and fled on foot, police said.

The company said most of the haul was in checks.

Checks Sent On Tax Share

LISBON — Columbiana County, its townships and communities shared this week in $391,037 in intangible taxes received from the state.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell said checks representing 50 per cent of the total, or $195,518, were mailed to cities and villages. The county's 40 per cent came to $156,415 and townships received 10 per cent or $39,104.

The attacks have included mortar shellings of four provincial capitals.

Four incidents in the past 24 hours were reported in Saigon. A grenade thrown into a voter registration office wounded two persons and a Vietnamese policeman was wounded and a terrorist killed in a gun battle Thursday night. No injuries were reported in two other grenade attacks.

Sunday's election also will include voting for a 60-man Senate. But the campaigning by the 480 senatorial candidates has been quiet in contrast with that for the presidency. The civilian presidential candidates have accused the Thieu-Ky military ticket of unfair campaign tactics and some called the election a fraud.

While no general effort to defraud the voters is anticipated, it is generally agreed that some government officials in the provinces—most of whom owe their jobs to Thieu and Ky—have been persuading voters to choose the military ticket. It is not known whether the local officials are doing this on their own or under orders from Thieu and Ky.

Political observers estimate the military ticket will win with between 35 and 45 per cent of the vote. Former Premier Tran Van Huong is expected to receive perhaps 30 per cent of the vote and Phan Khac Suu, chairman of the Provisional Assembly, is predicted to be the No. 3 runner.

Voters will not choose a House of Representatives until Oct. 22.

While the senators will be elected at large, with all voters choosing from all candidates, candidates for the House run in local district.

ate. Some of the measures were scheduled to be signed by the governor today and Saturday.

Another skeleton session next Friday will send about 100 more bills on to Rhodes' office, and the legislature has scheduled a cleanup session to begin Jan. 15.

The apportionment measure—in the form of a proposed constitutional amendment—will be on the November ballot statewide. Voters have rejected two previous plans.

The new plan retains the 99-member House and 33-member Senate but redraws lines in some cases to make districts more nearly equal in population. The makeup of the State Apportionment Board is increased from three to five members.

Bombing

possibility "does not justify the Secretary (McNamara) in taking the position that closing or neutralizing this vital port is unimportant from a military standpoint, a position which is entirely at odds with the unanimous judgment of all of our military experts."

Mansfield praised McNamara and said "attacks on the integrity" of the Pentagon chief are in reality attacks on President Johnson.

Mansfield said McNamara's position is sound, and noted the defense secretary had declared the bombing or mining of Haiphong would not stop the infiltration of Communist troops and supplies into the South.

The subcommittee said, "All military witnesses stated that the closure, neutralization or isolation of the Port of Haiphong was the single most important thing which could be done in North Vietnam from a military standpoint. They felt this measure...would have a substantial impact on the course of the war and the American and allied casualties in the South."

There were indications of a two-fold purpose in the swift release of the subcommittee's initial report:

—The panel denounced proposals for a pause in the bombing as "foolish and naive," but said it was not clear that all such suggestions are officially dead. A subcommittee source said civilian witnesses refused to rule out such action.

In the Senate, Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., proposed a bombing pause for after Sunday's South Vietnamese elections to test chances for peace negotiations. Mansfield praised this suggestion, saying it deserved serious consideration.

In language which seemed designed to discourage such suggestions, the subcommittee said "the inevitable result would be an increased infiltration of men and war goods into South Vietnam and increased casualties among U.S. and allied troops."

—The subcommittee indicated that if its prescription is to be followed, the action will have to be taken soon because of weather.

"It must be borne in mind that the Northeast monsoon from mid-October to April cuts down severely on the number of targets that can be struck," said the report.

Signing the unanimous report along with Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., were Sens. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., a former secretary of the Air Force; Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash.; Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., an Air Force Reserve major general; Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va.; Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine; Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., an Air Force Reserve major general; and Jack Miller, R-Iowa, an Air Force Reserve brigadier general.

Auto Runs Wild, Lisbon Motorist Escapes Unhurt

A 17 - year - old Lisbon youth escaped unhurt from his 1956 sedan which took him on a wild ride down Black's Road near Route 30, sliding 150 feet sideways, striking an embankment and finally overturning.

Gene A. Randolph of RD 2 told investigators from the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon that his auto stopped running and as he attempted a repair it started down the steep hill.

At this point the brakes failed on the auto and sent it careening wildly down the highway.

Randolph was cited for operating an unsafe vehicle.

would be against only one company, not the industrywide strike he accused the big three of conspiring to push his union towards Thursday.

On this, his 60th birthday, Reuther said he will name a target company at which the union traditionally drives for a contract to be used as a pattern for settlement with the other two. He set a news conference for 5:30 p.m.

Reuther termed General Motors "the chief architect" Thursday of what he said was "a collusive conspiracy" to thwart "free and independent collective bargaining." The companies said it wasn't so.

He also expressed concern of a possible industry lockout following a strike call, such as occurred earlier this year when the Teamsters Union attempted to strike scattered preselected targets in the trucking industry.

Today's development indicated, however, that if the UAW strike GM or Ford, Chrysler production of automobiles will continue without interruption. Such a development would make a strike pinch harder on GM or Ford because Chrysler 1968 models would be flowing into showrooms around the nation while production would cease at the company struck by the union.

Insisting a complete shutdown of General Motors would close the entire industry, Reuther said if a strike were called against GM it would be a selective one. Such occurred there in 1964 as the UAW drove to the contract that expires Wednesday.

GM's automobile assembly lines were shut down is 1964, but plants making parts used by Ford, Chrysler, White Motors and International Harvester, among others, were left in operation.

Whatever settlement the UAW and the automakers come up with will be used by the union as a pattern is striving for new contracts in the aerospace and agricultural implement industries and in hundreds of supplier plants. In all, the UAW claims a membership of 1.5 million.

and bars which accounts for a third of shipments.

U.S. Steel said it gave "very thoughtful attention to Mr. Ackley's comments" before raising prices.

"We are also very mindful of inflationary pressures, having been on the receiving end of many of them," the company said. "But after the long period of relative price stability in steel, these modest price changes cannot be considered either unwarranted or inflation-inducing."

U.S. Steel and Republic both cited rising labor and material costs and declining profits.

Second quarter profits in the steel industry skidded 36 per cent this year.

Taking these factors into account, steel observers in the past month have been predicting a general price increase.

Analysts figure the time is ripe for it. Although sales are beginning to pick up, they argue that if steel waits for a sales boom it would weaken it's argument for higher prices.

Ackley, in his statement, said that with price increases already made, with expanding volume and with new and modern plants and equipment there is every reason to expect improved earnings.

The attack was the first by the council on any industrial price increase since last Jan. 12 when it said the national interest was "poorly served" by an aluminum price hike.

Since then the council has worked behind the scenes in its attempt to hold the price line.

Smith Will Join Globe Ceremony

West Virginia Gov. Hulett C. Smith will be guest of honor Sept. 14 at plant dedication ceremonies of Globe Refractories, Inc., near Newell.

Many prominent government and civic officials and leaders of industry from the tri-state area will join the governor in dedicating the ultra - modern Pouring Pit Refractory Plant.

Its construction represents a $3,500,000 expansion designed to produce higher quality refractory products faster and in greater quantity, company officials said. Its existence should help to strengthen the economic fibers of the surrounding areas.

William F. Porter, president of Globe Refractories, calls the plant "the largest and most highly - automated pouring pit refractory unit in the world." The 140,000-square-foot addition is capable of producing 22 million fire brick per annum using completely automatic procedures in the pressing, storing, car handling and firing phases of production.

THE PLANT contains a 632-foot tunnel kiln that is believed to be the longest of its kind in existence.

The automatic aspect of the new plant's processes permits pre - programming of a full day's work. Clay is automatically fed and blended into dry presses, where it is formed into bricks. The bricks then move by conveyor to setting machines to be stacked automatically on tunnel kiln cars. The cars move to a combination holding and drying room before entering the kiln where the temperature will reach 2000 degree F. Emerging from the kiln, the products are palletized and stored or shipped as needed.

Globe Refractories recently changed its name from the Globe Brick Co. to coincide with its long - range plan of product diversification. The company is a leading supplier of fire brick ladle linings and other refractory material used in making steel.

million tax program is excessive.

The House also passed $91.5 million in appropriations and authorization for eight new common pleas court judgeships in seven counties before joining the Senate in an extended Labor Day recess.

When the General Assembly returns Sept. 11, the Senate will have to wrestle with the cigarette tax legislation and a proposed $59.9 million increase in the corporate net income tax, approved by the House Wednesday.

The House still will have 161 million in proposed new taxes on its calendar, but whether Republicans can muster the 102 votes to pass them is another question.

"You ran your most attractive tax bills this week," Minority Leader Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, told Republicans in a floor speech. "You're going to have one ding-dong battle to pass the remainder of the package."

Among the tax proposals still before the House are levies on life insurance benefits, beer and liquor, trade-in values received on cars and appliances, in addition to other business taxes.

The judge bills, like the cigarette tax, also went down to defeat first time around. That was on July 19, when Republicans were not at full strength and Democrats put up near solid opposition.

Approved finally and sent to the Senate was authorization for two new judges in Delaware County and one each in Berks, Lebanon, Montgomery, Westmoreland, Bucks and Chester counties.

After the vote, the House Republican leadership discovered that five of the bills were defective and would have to be amended in the Senate.

The five, involving all but Delaware and Berks counties, were written with the intent that elections for judgeships would be held this November.

House Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson, R-Allegheny, said it was now too late for nominees to be placed on the ballot this year.

If approved by the Senate, and assuming the House concurs in the amendments, Gov. Shafer would appoint the judges to serve until after the 1969 election.

Beaver Falls Trucker Cited For Local Crash

Walter W. Zombeck Jr., 20, of Beaver Falls was cited by police Thursday after his backing pickup truck bumped the front of a halted auto on E. 5th St. at Washington St.

Zombeck was charged with improper backing after the collision that damaged the left front fender, grill and hood of a 1963 sedan operated by Mrs. Mildred Jean Zehnder, 36, of 1323 Fairmont St. Zombeck was driving a truck owned by Louis S. Belkowski, also of Beaver Falls. It was not damaged.

Zombeck said he was driving west on E. 5th St. when the traffic light at Washington St. suddenly turned red. He stopped and then began to back without seeing the Zehnder car halted behind him, Zombeck told Patrolman K. J. Montgomery.

Cincinnati rookie pitcher Gary Nolan turned in one of his most impressive victories on July 4 when he beat the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0. He gave up three hits, walked only two.

ary offer but submitted a new proposal of its own as negotiations on a new contract moved to the critical state.

More than 30,000 of the city's 55,000 classroom teachers have signed resignations which the United Federation of Teachers threatens to submit to the board if a new contract is not reached by Sept. 11 when classes ar scheduled to begin.

In Clearwater, Fla., school officials and Pinellas County teachers agreed Thursday on a 14-point program calling for higher salaries to clear the way for resumption of classes in public schools.

Nearly 2,000 teachers had submitted resignations late Wednesday on the first day of the new school year. The agreement calls for salary increases ranging from $440 a year for new teachers with a bachelor's degree to more than 1,000 for beginning teachers with doctorates.

Meanwhile in Broward County, a larger system than Pinellas, the school board voted to close schools next Tuesday so teachers may attend a county 'professional day" called by their association.

The teachers have rejected the Broward board's promise o a base salary up to $6,000 nex year, holding to their request for $5,615 for the school year begun last Monday.

Pinellas schools were the first in Florida to be closed since teachers launched a statewide campaign for higher salaries and more money for education.

Sanctions against the state have been invoked by the Florida Education Association and its parent organization, the National Education Association. Gov. Claude Kink has promised to annouce a new education program Sept. 5.

About two-thirds of the 800 public school teachers in East St. Louis, Ill., refused to work Thursday, the second day of school. Many of the 24,000 students were sent home.

Officials of Local 120 of American Federation of Teachers said their members were willing to return if the school board would discuss salary demands. The board has refused saying money is not available.

A desegregation plan in Providence, R.I., brought some 75 demonstrators to the city's school administrative offices Thursday night for a "sleep-in" protest.

The predominantly Negro group said they would stay until the school committee met with them to discuss the issue. The plan is scheduled to go into effect when classes start next Wednesday.

The demonstrators say they object to Negro children being bussed out of predominantly Negro south Providence to white schools in other parts of the city.

And in Venice, La., Negro and white pupils chanted "We want teachers! We want teachers!" Thursday as they picketed the Boothville-Venice school and refused to transfer to the Buras High School 10 miles away.

School officials decided to eliminate the 10th, 11th and 12th grades at the school because of a teacher shortage. Venice is 90 miles south of New Orleans in rich Plaquemines Parish.

May Hit $119 Billion In 1975

State, City Spending Seen $103 Billion In 3 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — In three years state and local governments will be spending $103 billion annually, or as much as the federal government spent three years ago, figures under congressional study indicate.

The total is likely to go to $119 billion by 1975, one study shows.

These figures are part of three volumes of materials gathered by a Senate-House economic subcommittee looking into future revenue needs, including a controversial proposal for sharing federal tax collections with the states.

The studies point up some facts often overshadowed by mounting federal budgets:

—State and local units still pay for the bulk of domestic civilian services.

—From 1955 to 1965 state and local general expenditures increased more than twice as fast as general federal expenditures, and state and local government employment went up 58 per cent, compared with a 9 per cent increase in federal employment.

—State and local taxes more than doubled during the period, from $23.5 billion to $51.2 billion, while total state and local intake, including federal aid and borrowings, went from $36.4 billion to $81.3 billion.

The economists who contributed to the study did not agree on the tax outlook. One estimate was that existing taxes, operating on a growing economy, would provide enough funds unless significant additions to state and local services were decided on.

Others said more revenue, either from state taxes or a federal share, would be needed. Expanded use of state income taxes was mentioned often.

The sharply increased workload of state and local governments since World War II was attributed in large part to the shift of population to cities, cutting in half the number of farms.

The facilities and services rural people do without, or provide for themselves, are in general those paid for by state and local governments—city sewerage, sidewalks, street lighting, traffic control, health inspections, for example. Rising living standards and expectations--notably the demand for higher education—also contributed.

But at least two projections emphasized elements tending to moderate the growth of demands on state and local government.

The 5-to-17-year age group—the school population—increased 35 per cent during the 1955-65 decade. The increase is projected at 7 per cent in 1965-75. In addition, the growth rate in the population of those 65 and older, relatively heavy beneficiaries of health and welfare services, is expected to be one-fourth less during the latter decade.

Wounding Of Man On Bike Touches Off Confusing Hunt

A Puerto Rican cycling from Chicago to New York City was shot in the right foot Thursday morning on Route 30 near Apples Corners.

Edward Vegas, 20, of 1909 Division St., Chicago, is in fair condition at East Liverpool City Hospital, where doctors removed the bullet yesterday afternoon.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington said the mishap occurred about 7-10ths of a mile west of Route 267 as Vegas and three companions were pedaling toward East Liverpool. They spent Wednesday night at Minerva.

THE DEPUTY said the bullet was probably a stray since it came from the direction of an old strip mine sometimes used for target practice. He intends to investigate further.

Other cyclists were Ramon Easom of 2909 Grand Ave., Chicago, and William Lopez, 22, and Ramon Figueroa, 22, both of 1909 Division St.

Easom, the leader and the only one conversant in English, works for the Commission on Youth Welfare for the city of Chicago. He said they are members of a Latin-American club and are going to a conference in New York.

After Vegas was wounded, Easom flagged down a car. The occupants, Robert Guyton and A. C. Purinton Jr., both of East Liverpool, took Easom and Vegas to City Hospital. X-rays revealed the bullet, which entered at the instep, was in the foot.

HOSPITAL personnel reported the incident to the sheriff at 10:30 and Wellington picked up Easom so he could show where the accident occurred. However, Easom could not remember the countryside. They could not find the two men who stayed behind because, unknown to Easom, the Ohio Highway Patrol had picked them up and taken them to the hospital.

Wellington said he and Easom made two trips to Fredericktown and went as far as Rogers before finally locating the vicinity where Vegas was hit.

The three riders resumed their journey from Apples Corners, where they had left their bicycles in a barn, and stopped at the hospital to see Vegas before going on.

Three Firms Destroyed In Canton Fire

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A roaring fire eight blocks from downtown Canton destroyed three firms Thursday night as an estimated 6,000 tires fed the flames and sent thick, billowing smoke over the Southeast Side.

Flames could be seen five miles away. There were no reported injuries.

No damage estimate was available.

Firms occupying space in the building were the Bob Yost Tire and Rubber Co.; the United Parcel Co. and the A. P. Green Refractories Co., which makes fireproofing equipment.

Firemen said the blaze reportedly started from a malfunction of an electrical motor on a tire recapping machine on the second floor, occupied by the Yost firm. The Yost company was supposed to be closed and it was not immediately known if any employe was in the building, firemen said.

Ten United Parcel employes drove trucks from the building and saved about 200 packages.

Parents of one youth placed him in a military school, and his case is disposed of.

Sentencing of the other two was deferred this morning to give the parents additional time to find places for their boys.

Judge Tobin said damages are to be divided equally among the three.

The studies point up some facts often overshadowed by mounting federal budgets:

—State and local units still pay for the bulk of domestic civilian services.

—From 1955 to 1965 state and local general expenditures increased more than twice as fast as general federal expenditures, and state and local government employment went up 58 per cent, compared with a 9 per cent increase in federal employment.

--State and local taxes more than doubled during the period, from $23.5 billion to $51.2 billion, while total state and local intake, including federal aid and borrowings, went from $36.4 billion to $81.3 billion.

The economists who contributed to the study did not agree on the tax outlook. One estimate was that existing taxes, operating on a growing economy, would provide enough funds unless significant additions to state and local services were decided on.

Others said more revenue, either from state taxes or a federal share, would be needed. Expanded use of state income taxes was mentioned often.

The sharply increased workload of state and local governments since World War II was attributed in large part to the shift of population to cities, cutting in half the number of farms.

The facilities and services rural people do without, or provide for themselves, are in general those paid for by state and local governments—city sewerage, sidewalks, street lighting, traffic control, health inspections, for example. Rising living standards and expectations--notably the demand for higher education—also contributed.

But at least two projections emphasized elements tending to moderate the growth of demands on state and local government.

The 5-to-17-year age group—the school population—increased 35 per cent during the 1955-65 decade. The increase is projected at 7 per cent in 1965-75. In addition, the growth rate in the population of those 65 and older, relatively heavy beneficiaries of health and welfare services, is expected to be one-fourth less during the latter decade.

Wounding Of Man On Bike Touches Off Confusing Hunt

A Puerto Rican cycling from Chicago to New York City was shot in the right foot Thursday morning on Route 30 near Apples Corners.

Edward Vegas, 20, of 1909 Division St., Chicago, is in fair condition at East Liverpool City Hospital, where doctors removed the bullet yesterday afternoon.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington said the mishap occurred about 7-10ths of a mile west of Route 267 as Vegas and three companions were pedaling toward East Liverpool. They spent Wednesday night at Minerva.

THE DEPUTY said the bullet was probably a stray since it came from the direction of an old strip mine sometimes used for target practice. He intends to investigate further.

Other cyclists were Ramon Easom of 2909 Grand Ave., Chicago, and William Lopez, 22, and Ramon Figueroa, 22, both of 1909 Division St.

Easom, the leader and the only one conversant in English, works for the Commission on Youth Welfare for the city of Chicago. He said they are members of a Latin-American club and are going to a conference in New York.

After Vegas was wounded, Easom flagged down a car. The occupants, Robert Guyton and A. C. Purinton Jr., both of East Liverpool, took Easom and Vegas to City Hospital. X-rays revealed the bullet, which entered at the instep, was in the foot.

HOSPITAL personnel reported the incident to the sheriff at 10:30 and Wellington picked up Easom so he could show where the accident occurred. However, Easom could not remember the countryside. They could not find the two men who stayed behind because, unknown to Easom, the Ohio Highway Patrol had picked them up and taken them to the hospital.

Wellington said he and Easom made two trips to Fredericktown and went as far as Rogers before finally locating the vicinity where Vegas was hit.

The three riders resumed their journey from Apples Corners, where they had left their bicycles in a barn, and stopped at the hospital to see Vegas before going on.

Three Firms Destroyed In Canton Fire

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A roaring fire eight blocks from downtown Canton destroyed three firms Thursday night as an estimated 6,000 tires fed the flames and sent thick, billowing smoke over the Southeast Side.

Flames could be seen five miles away. There were no reported injuries.

No damage estimate was available.

Firms occupying space in the building were the Bob Yost Tire and Rubber Co.; the United Parcel Co. and the A. P. Green Refractories Co., which makes fireproofing equipment.

Firemen said the blaze reportedly started from a malfunction of an electrical motor on a tire recapping machine on the second floor, occupied by the Yost firm. The Yost company was supposed to be closed and it was not immediately known if any employe was in the building, firemen said.

Ten United Parcel employes drove trucks from the building and saved about 200 packages.

Youths Ordered To Leave Salem For Burglaries

LISBON — Three Salem youths, all 16, who admitted burglaries at three Salem homes last Friday in Juvenile Court, must leave the community.

That was an order issued by Judge Louis Tobin when scheduling sentencing for this morning.

Parents of one youth placed him in a military school, and his case is disposed of.

Sentencing of the other two was deferred this morning to give the parents additional time to find places for their boys.

Judge Tobin said damages are to be divided equally among the three.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Maybe you will not think my letter is worth printing, but I learned one of life's bitter lessons the hard way and I want to share it.

My mother and I were very close. I always knew my parents didn't get along. Mom cut me in on every one of Dad's escapades. She made sure I knew all about his unfaithfulness and how much she suffered.

This created horrible feelings of ambivalence because I really loved my father. Mom wanted me to hate him and there were times when I felt guilty because I couldn't.

When I was first married I had a rough time. I'd been taught that all men were liars and cheats and not to be trusted. Thank God my husband was wise and understanding. He knew my problems sprang from childhood and he helped me overcome them.

If my husband ever should do anything to disappoint me you can be sure I never will let my children know. This is one lesson I was -- TAUGHT WELL.

Dear Taught: Parents who use their children as the battleground on which to wage war against one another are the cruelest of all. You were lucky to marry a man who is kind and understanding. I'm happy for you and sad for your mother. She was a sick woman.

Magazine Dealer

Dear Ann: My husband and I live in an apartment house. Across the hall lives a sweet old lady about 70. The slot-type mailboxes are in the entrance way and there is a wire basket for large magazines.

For the last two months, this sweet old lady has greeted us at our door on the day our magazines arrive to say she saw them in the basket and took them to read, knowing we would not mind. She invariably says, "I'll return them tomorrow." She never does.

Both my husband and I would feel like fools knocking on her door and asking for our magazines, so we end up buying more magazines at the drug store.

What would you do?—H AND D

Dear H and D.: The next time that sweet old lady greets you at the door to announce she has taken your magazines, walk her back to her apartment and tell her you want to save her a trip returning them because you had planned on reading them this every evening. Tell her you will give her the magazines after you have finished with them.

Ball Of Fire

Dear Ann: The letter from the woman whose mother-in-law came to visit one year and cleaned out her closets, medicine cabinets, moved the furniture and relined the drawers sounds like the story of my life -- only my mother-in-law lives in town and does this once a month.

She comes with her own vacuum cleaner, rags, brooms, pails, washing powders and furniture polish, and tears my house apart. She drags home my curtains and tablecloths so she can "launder them properly."

I've never seen so much energy in my life. She says, "You feed the dog and I'll pull the weeds. You scrub the steps and I'll wash the ceilings. You clean out the refrigerator and I'll varsish the floors."

When she leaves I have to go to bed for two days.

I have asked her not to clean my house but she says, "I love it." My husband says I should be tickled pink to have the help and to keep quiet. What do you say?—EMMA.

Dear Emma: When she arrives, leave for the day and return in time to say "Thank you." Your husband has a point, kiddo.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Double Trouble Greets Shafer In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Double trouble greeted Gov. Shafer in Pittsburgh Thursday.

As he discussed civil rights problems with civil rights leaders in the State Office Building, housewives picketed outside protesting high milk prices.

"Shafer for the Birds," "Traitor Shafer" and "Milk control Gestapo" read some of the signs carried by about 50 women.

They were irked by the governor's action in asking the state Milk Control Commission to seek court action stopping the C & D Budget Dairy in Pittsburgh from selling milk at cut-rate prices.

The pet food store had been selling milk fit for humans at 79 cents a gallon, 29 cents below the state minimum.

"I think it's terrible," said Mrs. Phyllis Kernick of Penn Hills. "I think it's a slap in the face to the people who voted for him on the basis that he would bring about reform in the present milk mess in Pennsylvania."

Said Mrs. Ruth S. Boney of Rt. 2, Tarentum:

"If they can sell milk in Ohio for what they do, they can do it in Pennsylvania, too. The governor made the promise he was going to do something about it—that was part of his campaign."

Shafer told a news conference he was unaware the women were outside. He made no other comment.

Menwhile, representatives of the Teamsters Union and another dairy refused comment on a charge by C & D that they shut off the cut-rate dairy's milk supply.

Officials of Teamsters Local 205 and William Colteryahn and Sons Dairy both said delivery was stopped Wednesday because the store violated the union contract.

What was the violation?

"Suppose you talk with Mr. Colteryahn," said union President William Lickert. "He knows the rules."

But, said Colteryahn, "You'd better talk to the union about that."

President Ernest Hayes of the United Dairy Farmers, which backed the store, said, "The Teamsters have joined up with other dairies against us. We're having trouble finding another dairy.

"It looks like some big trouble has been threatened for anyone who bottles milk for us," he added.

But the group wasn't giving up.

Hayes said his group is planning to open stores in the Pittsburgh area, Erie, and Philadelphia.

Testimony Centers On Radar Contact

Testimony To Continue In Sky Diving Tragedy

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Testimony in a hearing on the sky diving tragedy in which 16 off-target parachutists lost their lives Sunday shows that ground controllers may not have had the jump plane identified positively on radar.

Testimony Thursday from Engel Smit of of Oberlin, a Federal Aviation Administration controller, indicated that positive identification of the converted B25 plane was certain most of the time as the plane left Ortner Airport and climbed above the clouds to 20,000 feet.

Smit, one of two FAA controllers who was in contact with the jump plane, was to resume his testimony today.

The hearing being conducted by the National Transportation Safety Board seeks to determine why the jump plane was 10 miles off target and over Lake Erie when 18 sky divers made a blind jump through the clouds.

Only two survived. Two bodies were recovered Sunday and a third body was found Thursday night.

The third body, identified as that of Michael Thiem, 24, Springfield, was found floating less than a mile offshore, near the mouth of the Huron River.

Robert D. Karns, pilot of the B25, testified that he was not in continuous radio contact with the FAA control center at Oberlin as he sought to navigate to the jump target at Ortner Airfield.

He said he had only one radio operating and could either receive messages from the ground or tune in a navigational signal. He could not do both simultaneously.

Reading from a transcript of his taped radio conversation with the FAA center, Karns quoted the controller as saying in answer to a request for radar help:

"I believe I have you in radar contact now."

Another pilot who was in the area at the time also testified concerning conversations relating to the radar contact. The second pilot, Ted Murphy, was in a plane circling the target area at 12,000 feet with a cameraman prepared to take pictures of the mass jump.

Murphy was quoted in the transcript of taped radio messages as asking the FAA:

"Could you give me my proximity to the B25; we want to take some pictures."

Center: "I do have two targets out there. I wasn't sure whether I was watching the B25 or not. Ah, I'm not sure I've got him on radar as a matter of fact, if you're also out there on heading 250."

Murphy: "We can make a turn if it will help you."

No such turn was made, however, because Murphy spotted a fast-moving jet in his area, and the FAA center used the jet to determine his position, then identified the B25 alone in another area.

Testimony indicated that there was intermittent loss of identification of Murphy's plane and the B25, which took off about 2 p.m. and released the jumpers at 4:02 p.m.

Thomas McDill, who is conducting the hearing for the safety board, and Jack Harrington, member of the panel taking testimony, read into the record excerpts of FAA manuals defining duties of controllers. These indicated that any radar service given on flights such as Karns' was voluntarily provided and that navigational responsibility ultimately rested with the pilot.

LBJ Urged To Tell Lobbyists To Keep Away From Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has privately passed the word to President Johnson to order lobbyists for government agencies to "keep their distance" from the Senate.

Mansfield is understood to have acted after intense lobbying efforts by officials of the Pentagon and the Agency for International Development were blamed for losing—rather than gaining—votes in a critical battle over foreign aid.

Mansfield said in an interview he asked Mike Manatos, the chief White House liaison man with the Senate, to advise the President that Mansfield "didn't want people from the agencies to lobby here. in other words, to keep their distance."

The problem, Mansfield suggested, was that officials concerned with legislation dealing with their agencies' authority or funds become overanxious and trample on seeded congressional gardens.

Another unwelcome byproduct of such lobbying was, he suggested, confusion and irritation —particularly when an agency's officials are following the same route already covered by Mansfield or White House staffers.

"Sometimes," observed Mansfield, "they see senators I have seen or have been seen by my people, and senators don't want to be seen and seen again."

Mansfield did not specify what incident caused his request to Johnson. Other Senate sources say it was principally due to the activities of people from AID, the Pentagon and the State Department in trying to drum up senatorial support last month.

"They were scurrying around here pretty good," said one Senate source.

Another, who has witnessed foreign aid battles from both the congressional and administration sides, observed with a practiced eye: "At first they weren't lobbying at all. Then they were overlobbying. They were everywhere. They were crawling out of the woodwork."

Sheriff And Deputies Demanding More Pay

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—The Butler County commissioners meet today to discuss the threatened resignation of Sheriff James F. Hixon and his deputies, who want more money for their work.

The 53-year-old sheriff said Thursday he and 33 deputies would resign unless the commissioners met their demands for pay raises and additional holiday pay. The deputies' pay now starts at $6,000 a year and Hixon said this is lower than the scale in surrounding counties.

William R. Stitsinger, chairmas of the commission, said the pay raise demand would be on the agenda but "we are not operating under any ultimatum."

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruso —

DEAR HELOISE: Since washing grubby little fingerprints off nicely painted woodthink I have found a way to avoid this, and help other mothers, too.

I tear off a piece of the plastic wrap we so often use in kitchen jobs and put it over the woodwork on each side of the open doorway into the family room along about where little fingers so often grab. I smooth it down with my fingers and it adheres beautifully.

The clear plastic makes this protection almost invisible, and no more hand prints and repainting of too often washed woodwork to cope with.

So you see . . . walls CAN be beautiful.

All it takes is a swipe with a damp rag in case a little tyke should come in with mud on his hands.

But the best part of it is fingerprints do not show.

CONNIE SCHREIBER.

Now that's food for thought, isn't it mothers

A strip of this plastic wrap could also be put on the door-facing at the front and back door entrances where little tykes often leave their marks.

Be sure and keep big pieces of plastic out of the reach of children.

I did find that the clinging-type plastics adhere beautifully to woodwork, doors and around light switches. And just try a tiny piece on the refrigerator door where tiny hands slam it. Great.

After you have placed the plastic wrap on your particular piece of wood, take a sponge and smooth it out and all the air bubbles will come out from under it.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: A tip of my hat to the Heloise fan who saves jam jars, using up the last hard-to-get jam by filling it with milk, stirring and serving to children as flavored milk .

As a bachelor cook, I habitually save all sweet pickle jars after eating the pickles.

There's always a third of a jar of sweet vinegar, MINGLED with sugar, spices, condiments and seeds, prepared by experts. This valuable juice I never throw out.

It makes excellent dressing for fresh cucumbers with onions. Also it served as an improved substitute for the vinegar that is normally used in salad receipes, tossed salads, etc.

BILL BEAUMONT.

Try the juices from sour or Kosher dills on the fresh cucumbers and onions, too . . . Umm, umm, good!

And, have you tried putting cauliflower florets or carrot sticks in the pickle juices? Just let 'em be for a week or so and you'll have delicious, pickled vegetables.

Thanks loads, Bill — some gal is missing a good bet by letting you remain a bachelor!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: One of the most fantastic hints you have ever printed was to put two sheets of waxed paper in the bottom of your freezer compartment of the refrigerator after defrosting.

Not only do things not stick, but when defrosting time comes, the ice lets loose like the chunk that sunk the Titanic steamer.

MARY ELLEN.

DEAR HELOISE: The cardboard squares we get when we buy nylon hose are the perfect thing to put in the bottom of plastic bags to support dinner rolls when we freeze them. One dozen fits perfectly on the cardboard square.

JUDY T.

DEAR HELOISE: When using bath powder, I stand in my bathtub to dust it on.

No dusting powder flies anywhere except in the tub. I lave it in the tub and the next bath that is taken has scented water!

DEAR HELOISE: When the top of a dress goes to pieces, and the full skirt is still good, I rip the skirt open and proceed to make boxer shorts galore for my little ones . . .

More Tax-Paid Trips Due House Than For Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted Thursday to let House members take more taxpayer-financed trips home than senators are allowed.

A bill passed without debate and sent to President Johnson lets each House member take one roundtrip home for each month Congress is in session.

House members now are limited to four such trips annually at government expense, but senators get six. In recent years Congress has usually met during more than six months.

House members also will be permitted—even if their district is adjacent to Washington—to collect $750 for transportation expenses in lieu of billing for each trip. The present lump sum limit is $300.

The bill is retroactive to Jan. 3.

Utility Company Employe Closes 32-Year Career

CANTON — John J. Reiser, credited with originating the Ohio Power Co.'s program of reforestation, reclamation and recreation, retired today with 32 years' sevice.

Reiser, a resident of New Philadelphia, served as state and local tax supervisor in the managerial department of the Canton general office.

He launched the program of reforestation and related activities in 1939 when he served as a real estate agent and purchased land for Ohio Power's first mining operation at the Philo plant.

"I guess my job in reclamation began when I ordered 10,000 trees planted on a worn - out hill the company owned," he said.

More than 23 million trees have been planted since 1943 in the program he designed. Wildlife, land and trees flourish in the four - county surface mining area of Ohio Power's subsidiary company, Central Ohio Coal Co.

When Buckpasser came from behind to win the Subruban Handicap at Aqueduct on July 4 he ran his earnings to $1,419,144. Ahead of him are Kelso and Round Table, both retired.

STRONG MINDS

Q. Is the old saying, "Strong in mind, weak in body" true or false?

A. False. The highly intelligent are generally taller, heavier, and physically and mentally healthier than those of average intelligence. Although the gifted are inclined to be "risk-takers" in the world of ideas, they tend to have a more even disposition than the average person.

SOAP VS. SYNTHETIC DETERGENTS

Q. Are synthetic detergents noticeably harder on the hands than soap?

A. Yes. In one study more than 500 housewives cooperated in testing a fine-fabric soap, two all-purpose soaps, and a widely used all-purpose detergent. Each subject was examined after using a given soap for two weeks. Doctors' verdict: Use of fine fabric soap is associated with the best general skin condition of the hands. Housewives' verdict: Ditto.

"Suppose you talk with Mr. Colteryahn," said union President William Lickert. "He knows the rules."

But, said Colteryahn, "You'd better talk to the union about that."

President Ernest Hayes of the United Dairy Farmers, which backed the store, said, "The Teamsters have joined up with other dairies against us. We're having trouble finding another dairy.

"It looks like some big trouble has been threatened for anyone who bottles milk for us," he added.

But the group wasn't giving up.

Hayes said his group is planning to open stores in the Pittsburgh area, Erie, and Philadelphia.

STRONG MINDS

Q. Is the old saying, "Strong in mind, weak in body" true or false?

A. False. The highly intelligent are generally taller, heavier, and physically and mentally healthier than those of average intelligence. Although the gifted are inclined to be "risk-takers" in the world of ideas, they tend to have a more even disposition than the average person.

SOAP VS. SYNTHETIC DETERGENTS

Q. Are synthetic detergents noticeably harder on the hands than soap?

A. Yes. In one study more than 500 housewives cooperated in testing a fine-fabric soap, two all-purpose soaps, and a widely used all-purpose detergent. Each subject was examined after using a given soap for two weeks. Doctors' verdict: Use of fine fabric soap is associated with the best general skin condition of the hands. Housewives' verdict: Ditto.

Testimony Centers On Radar Contact

Testimony To Continue In Sky Diving Tragedy

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Testimony in a hearing on the sky diving tragedy in which 16 off-target parachutists lost their lives Sunday shows that ground controllers may not have had the jump plane identified positively on radar.

Testimony Thursday from Engel Smit of of Oberlin, a Federal Aviation Administration controller, indicated that positive identification of the converted B25 plane was certain most of the time as the plane left Ortner Airport and climbed above the clouds to 20,000 feet.

Smit, one of two FAA controllers who was in contact with the jump plane, was to resume his testimony today.

The hearing being conducted by the National Transportation Safety Board seeks to determine why the jump plane was 10 miles off target and over Lake Erie when 18 sky divers made a blind jump through the clouds.

Only two survived. Two bodies were recovered Sunday and a third body was found Thursday night.

The third body, identified as that of Michael Thiem, 24, Springfield, was found floating less than a mile offshore, near the mouth of the Huron River.

Robert D. Karns, pilot of the B25, testified that he was not in continuous radio contact with the FAA control center at Oberlin as he sought to navigate to the jump target at Ortner Airfield.

He said he had only one radio operating and could either receive messages from the ground or tune in a navigational signal. He could not do both simultaneously.

Reading from a transcript of his taped radio conversation with the FAA center, Karns quoted the controller as saying in answer to a request for radar help:

"I believe I have you in radar contact now."

Another pilot who was in the area at the time also testified concerning conversations relating to the radar contact. The second pilot, Ted Murphy, was in a plane circling the target area at 12,000 feet with a cameraman prepared to take pictures of the mass jump.

Murphy was quoted in the transcript of taped radio messages as asking the FAA:

"Could you give me my proximity to the B25; we want to take some pictures."

Center: "I do have two targets out there. I wasn't sure whether I was watching the B25 or not. Ah, I'm not sure I've got him on radar as a matter of fact, if you're also out there on heading 250."

Murphy: "We can make a turn if it will help you."

No such turn was made, however, because Murphy spotted a fast-moving jet in his area, and the FAA center used the jet to determine his position, then identified the B25 alone in another area.

Testimony indicated that there was intermittent loss of identification of Murphy's plane and the B25, which took off about 2 p.m. and released the jumpers at 4:02 p.m.

Thomas McDill, who is conducting the hearing for the safety board, and Jack Harrington, member of the panel taking testimony, read into the record excerpts of FAA manuals defining duties of controllers. These indicated that any radar service given on flights such as Karns' was voluntarily provided and that navigational responsibility ultimately rested with the pilot.

LBJ Urged To Tell Lobbyists To Keep Away From Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has privately passed the word to President Johnson to order lobbyists for government agencies to "keep their distance" from the Senate.

Mansfield is understood to have acted after intense lobbying efforts by officials of the Pentagon and the Agency for International Development were blamed for losing—rather than gaining—votes in a critical battle over foreign aid.

Mansfield said in an interview he asked Mike Manatos, the chief White House liaison man with the Senate, to advise the President that Mansfield "didn't want people from the agencies to lobby here. in other words, to keep their distance."

The problem, Mansfield suggested, was that officials concerned with legislation dealing with their agencies' authority or funds become overanxious and trample on seeded congressional gardens.

Another unwelcome byproduct of such lobbying was, he suggested, confusion and irritation —particularly when an agency's officials are following the same route already covered by Mansfield or White House staffers.

"Sometimes," observed Mansfield, "they see senators I have seen or have been seen by my people, and senators don't want to be seen and seen again."

Mansfield did not specify what incident caused his request to Johnson. Other Senate sources say it was principally due to the activities of people from AID, the Pentagon and the State Department in trying to drum up senatorial support last month.

"They were scurrying around here pretty good," said one Senate source.

Another, who has witnessed foreign aid battles from both the congressional and administration sides, observed with a practiced eye: "At first they weren't lobbying at all. Then they were overlobbying. They were everywhere. They were crawling out of the woodwork."

Sheriff And Deputies Demanding More Pay

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—The Butler County commissioners meet today to discuss the threatened resignation of Sheriff James F. Hixon and his deputies, who want more money for their work.

The 53-year-old sheriff said Thursday he and 33 deputies would resign unless the commissioners met their demands for pay raises and additional holiday pay. The deputies' pay now starts at $6,000 a year and Hixon said this is lower than the scale in surrounding counties.

William R. Stitsinger, chairmas of the commission, said the pay raise demand would be on the agenda but "we are not operating under any ultimatum."

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Since washing grubby little fingerprints off nicely painted woodthink I have found a way to avoid this, and help other mothers, too.

I tear off a piece of the plastic wrap we so often use in kitchen jobs and put it over the woodwork on each side of the open doorway into the family room along about where little fingers so often grab. I smooth it down with my fingers and it adheres beautifully.

The clear plastic makes this protection almost invisible, and no more hand prints and repainting of too often washed woodwork to cope with.

So you see . . . walls CAN be beautiful.

All it takes is a swipe with a damp rag in case a little tyke should come in with mud on his hands.

CONNIE SCHREIBER.

Now that's food for thought, isn't it mothers

A strip of this plastic wrap could also be put on the door-facing at the front and back door entrances where little tykes often leave their marks.

Be sure and keep big pieces of plastic out of the reach of children.

I did find that the clinging-type plastics adhere beautifully to woodwork, doors and around light switches. And just try a tiny piece on the refrigerator door where tiny hands slam it. Great.

After you have placed the plastic wrap on your particular piece of wood, take a sponge and smooth it out and all the air bubbles will come out from under it.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: A tip of my hat to the Heloise fan who saves jam jars, using up the last hard-to-get jam by filling it with milk, stirring and serving to children as flavored milk .

As a bachelor cook, I habitually save all sweet pickle jars after eating the pickles.

There's always a third of a jar of sweet vinegar, MINGLED with sugar, spices, condiments and seeds, prepared by experts. This valuable juice I never throw out.

It makes excellent dressing for fresh cucumbers with onions. Also it served as an improved substitute for the vinegar that is normally used in salad receipes, tossed salads, etc.

BILL BEAUMONT.

Try the juices from sour or Kosher dills on the fresh cucumbers and onions, too . . . Umm, umm, good!

And, have you tried putting cauliflower florets or carrot sticks in the pickle juices? Just let 'em be for a week or so and you'll have delicious, pickled vegetables.

Thanks loads, Bill — some gal is missing a good bet by letting you remain a bachelor!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: One of the most fantastic hints you have ever printed was to put two sheets of waxed paper in the bottom of your freezer compartment of the refrigerator after defrosting.

Not only do things not stick, but when defrosting time comes, the ice lets loose like the chunk that sunk the Titanic steamer.

MARY ELLEN.

DEAR HELOISE: The cardboard squares we get when we buy nylon hose are the perfect thing to put in the bottom of plastic bags to support dinner rolls when we freeze them. One dozen fits perfectly on the cardboard square.

JUDY T.

DEAR HELOISE: When using bath powder, I stand in my bathtub to dust it on.

No dusting powder flies anywhere except in the tub. I lave it in the tub and the next bath that is taken has scented water!

DEAR HELOISE: When the top of a dress goes to pieces, and the full skirt is still good, I rip the skirt open and proceed to make boxer shorts galore for my little ones . . .

More Tax-Paid Trips Due House Than For Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted Thursday to let House members take more taxpayer-financed trips home than senators are allowed.

A bill passed without debate and sent to President Johnson lets each House member take one roundtrip home for each month Congress is in session.

House members now are limited to four such trips annually at government expense, but senators get six. In recent years Congress has usually met during more than six months.

House members also will be permitted—even if their district is adjacent to Washington—to collect $750 for transportation expenses in lieu of billing for each trip. The present lump sum limit is $300.

The bill is retroactive to Jan. 3.

Utility Company Employe Closes 32-Year Career

CANTON — John J. Reiser, credited with originating the Ohio Power Co.'s program of reforestation, reclamation and recreation, retired today with 32 years' sevice.

Reiser, a resident of New Philadelphia, served as state and local tax supervisor in the managerial department of the Canton general office.

He launched the program of reforestation and related activities in 1939 when he served as a real estate agent and purchased land for Ohio Power's first mining operation at the Philo plant.

"I guess my job in reclamation began when I ordered 10,000 trees planted on a worn - out hill the company owned," he said.

More than 23 million trees have been planted since 1943 in the program he designed. Wildlife, land and trees flourish in the four - county surface mining area of Ohio Power's subsidiary company, Central Ohio Coal Co.

When Buckpasser came from behind to win the Subruban Handicap at Aqueduct on July 4 he ran his earnings to $1,419,144. Ahead of him are Kelso and Round Table, both retired.

Facts and Fallacies about Jewelry

by W. D. ORR

FALLACY:
Gold is the most precious of all metals.

FACT:
Today gold has to take second place to platinum in cost. Widely used as a setting for diamonds because of its whiteness, platinum is not as plentiful as gold, and its scarcity makes it more difficult to obtain. Canada is the largest source of platinum in the world today.

CONCLUSION:
Set in beautiful platinum, or in traditionally lovely gold, you'll find her diamond in our selection. There's no gift that says more than a diamond from

Kiwanis Told Of 'JA' Work

"A lesson in capitalistic democracy, not received in schools, can be learned in Junior Achievement," Nelson E. Hagerty, a director of the Southeastern Columbiana County JA told members of the Kiwanis Club at the Travelers Hotel Thursday noon.

Hagerty said young businessmen learn, among other things, that "you produce your own paycheck, and not the government."

Junior Achievement had 150 students enrolled from East Liverpool, Beaver Local and Wellsville High schools. There were six "companies," You - Haul, sponsored by the Potters Bank & Trust Co. and the First National Bank, which manufactured serving trays; Seasonal Centerpieces, retail businesses; JACS, sponsored by the Crucible Steel Co., a cookie tray; W-E-B, Sponsored by Patterson Industries, a cutting board; JAHI, sponsored by WOHI, a radio program, and C-Y-D, a dating service.

The organization has national and state charters, Hagerty explained, and placed its students quite high in local and county-wide competition, although JA here was in its first year. Gerald Winstead was program director.

Hagerty said sponsors hoped the organization will be expanded this year.

When paper is "sized" it is given a protective coating that fills in the pores or determines the kind of finish.

Karen Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Huggins of 805 Avondale St., is in "fairly good" condition with a possible concussion sustained in an auto accident in Youngstown early Thursday.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

A.—How can I clean black lace?

A.—Put into alcohol, and churn up and down until the liquid foams. If the lace is very dusty, repeat this operation, squeezing the lace out, slapping between the hands, pulling out the edges, and then laying it between brown paper smooth and straight. Leave under a weight until dry.

Q.—What can I do, when restringing beads, if the holes in the beads are too small for a needle to pass through?

A.—Discard the needle and rub a little glue on the end of the thread, working it into a point. When this is dry (which takes only a few minutes), it will be hard and stiff, and you can then proceed with your stringing.

Q.—What can I do, when I've finished using a can of paint, but expect to use it again within another day or two?

A.—You can preserve your paint and prevent any thick film from forming on its surface if you'll just pour a little water over it. When you're ready to use your paint again, all you have to do is pour off the water.

Reagan Loses Tuition Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has lost by a 2-1 margin his long battle to have the state Board of Regents impose tuition at California's universities.

But he claims victory today "in principle."

After a two-day meeting, the California Board of Regents agreed to allow a special committee to determine new student payments at an unspecified date.

Reagan said a number of the regents apparently had been "hung up" over the word tuition.

By a 14-7 vote, with two abstentions, the regents rejected Reagan's proposed annual tuition after he had suggested $250 per student. Reagan proposed lowering this to $200 before the regents agreed on a general new "charge."

The amount of the charge and when it goes into effect were left blank to be filled in at subsequent regent meetings.

Kiwanis Told Of 'JA' Work

"A lesson in capitalistic democracy, not received in schools, can be learned in Junior Achievement," Nelson E. Hagerty, a director of the Southeastern Columbiana County JA told members of the Kiwanis Club at the Travelers Hotel Thursday noon.

Hagerty said young businessmen learn, among other things, that "you produce your own paycheck, and not the government."

Junior Achievement had 150 students enrolled from East Liverpool, Beaver Local and Wellsville High schools. There were six "companies," You - Haul, sponsored by the Potters Bank & Trust Co. and the First National Bank, which manufactured serving trays; Seasonal Centerpieces, retail businesses; JACS, sponsored by the Crucible Steel Co., a cookie tray; W-E-B, Sponsored by Patterson Industries, a cutting board; JAHI, sponsored by WOHI, a radio program, and C-Y-D, a dating service.

The organization has national and state charters, Hagerty explained, and placed its students quite high in local and county-wide competition, although JA here was in its first year. Gerald Winstead was program director.

Hagerty said sponsors hoped the organization will be expanded this year.

When paper is "sized" it is given a protective coating that fills in the pores or determines the kind of finish.

Couple Establishes Home After Rite In New Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoddard have returned from a honeymoon and are residing at Tularosa, N. M., following their marriage there on Aug. 4 in the First Baptist Church when the Rev. Donald Douglas officiated for the double-ring rites.

The bride was Miss Kay Lynn Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Richards of Tularosa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester R. Stoddard of 637½ St. Clair Ave.

Vows were repeated before an altar decorated with white gladioli, ferns and candelabra. Bobby Yerby, organist, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white satin and Chantilly lace designed with an Empire bodice, long sleeves and chapel train. Her shoulder - length veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and rosebuds. The familiar traditions were observed.

Mrs. Kay Matheny, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of blue chiffon over taffeta. Carnations were featured in her floral arrangement.

Jim Molivas served as best man and Randy Richards and Rainey Nowell were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a blue suit and the bridegroom's mother, an aqua suit. White accessories and carnation and rosebud corsages complemented their attire.

A reception followed in the social rooms, where decorations predominated in a blue and white color theme. The buffet table was centered with a three tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple. Arrangements of white gladiolus completed the setting.

For going away, the bride wore a dress of white lace over blue taffeta and her bridal corsage.

Attending from here, in addition to the bridegroom's parents, was his brother, John Stoddard.

Los Angeles Seen Facing Catastrophe

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An air pollution expert says Los Angeles residents, choking and blinking after the worst siege of smog in the city's history, face "a major catastrophe."

To help prevent complete air contamination, he said, car emissions must be greatly reduced and antismog laws more rigidly enforced.

Louis J. Fuller, Los Angeles County air pollution control officer, said residents of the sprawling basin can expect to suffer for at least 10 more years unless stringent action is taken.

Complaints of smarting eyes and lung congestion poured into the county Health Department this week as the smog reached the second highest count of all time. Smog alerts were issued three straight days, ending Thursday after scattered thundershowers fell in Southern California.

The smog count at nearby Azusa was .54 part per million parts of air on Monday, .70 Tuesday and .73 Wednesday. The highest ever recorded was .90 at Vernon in 1955.

Sizzling temperatures accompanied the smog—up to 113 in Burbank in the suburban San Fernando Valley. A high of 103 Thursday in Los Angeles broke the record of 101 for the date.

3 Killed, 3 Hurt In 1-Car Mishap

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—A car carrying seven Clevelanders returning from a visit to the Ohio State Reformatory rolled over on Interstate 71 Thursday night, killing three and critically injuring another.

The victims were: Joseph Rodgers, the driver; Wesley Allen, 5, and Louis Black, 31. Rodgers and Black each had two sons and a daughter.

Critically injured was Allen's mother, Mrs. Sylvia F. Allen, 36.

Three others injured were Fred Salett, 32, and Frank Salett, 34, Mrs. Allen's brothers, and Donna Johnson, 16. All were treated and released from Medina Community Hospital.

The highway patrol said the seven had visited an inmate at the reformatory in Mansfield and were heading north when the auto struck the medial strip and rolled over about six miles north of here.

Parked Cars Hit As Wheels Lock

A Wellsville man was cited for reckless operation Thursday after his car went out of control and struck three parked autos on Main St. there.

Damage was extensive.

Los Angeles Seen Facing Catastrophe

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An air pollution expert says Los Angeles residents, choking and blinking after the worst siege of smog in the city's history, face "a major catastrophe."

To help prevent complete air contamination, he said, car emissions must be greatly reduced and antismog laws more rigidly enforced.

Louis J. Fuller, Los Angeles County air pollution control officer, said residents of the sprawling basin can expect to suffer for at least 10 more years unless stringent action is taken.

Complaints of smarting eyes and lung congestion poured into the county Health Department this week as the smog reached the second highest count of all time. Smog alerts were issued three straight days, ending Thursday after scattered thundershowers fell in Southern California.

The smog count at nearby Azusa was .54 part per million parts of air on Monday, .70 Tuesday and .73 Wednesday. The highest ever recorded was .90 at Vernon in 1955.

Sizzling temperatures accompanied the smog—up to 113 in Burbank in the suburban San Fernando Valley. A high of 103 Thursday in Los Angeles broke the record of 101 for the date.

U.S. Official Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — John L. Taylor, 56, a staff expert on the Pacific Islands for the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, died Tuesday after an illness of several months. He was director of education for the trust territory of the Pacific Islands for three years before joining the committee staff in 1953.

3 Killed, 3 Hurt In 1-Car Mishap

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—A car carrying seven Clevelanders returning from a visit to the Ohio State Reformatory rolled over on Interstate 71 Thursday night, killing three and critically injuring another.

The victims were: Joseph Rodgers, the driver; Wesley Allen, 5, and Louis Black, 31. Rodgers and Black each had two sons and a daughter.

Critically injured was Allen's mother, Mrs. Sylvia F. Allen, 36.

Three others injured were Fred Salett, 32, and Frank Salett, 34, Mrs. Allen's brothers, and Donna Johnson, 16. All were treated and released from Medina Community Hospital.

The highway patrol said the seven had visited an inmate at the reformatory in Mansfield and were heading north when the auto struck the medial strip and rolled over about six miles north of here.

Parked Cars Hit As Wheels Lock

A Wellsville man was cited for reckless operation Thursday after his car went out of control and struck three parked autos on Main St. there.

Robert H. Hobbs, 27, of 409 5th St. told officers the wheels of his car wouldn't turn, causing him to strike autos owned by James Pantoni of 12A Midland Heights, Midland; Bertha Montgomery of 929 Main St., Wellsville, and Lawrence Cline of 2012 Clark Ave., Wellsville.

Damage was extensive.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Debbie Reynolds Is Back

Debbie Reynolds says she is concerned only with the future, which includes her doing two TV specials for ABC this season, but she hasn't forgotten her first and only TV special done in 1960 and generally panned by the critics.

Hal Humphrey

"Did I say panned? I think killed is the word. But I ran that old one off on the screen the other day and liked it. I've wiped those reviews out of my head," she firmly states.

-:-

DEBBIE can be sure the critics and the viewers have forgotten. Seven years is a long time in TV's mass production marathon where it is difficult to remember what shows were seen last week. Anyway, she has signed a three-year TV pact with ABC which includes two more specials next season as well and maybe a weekly variety hour.

"I now feel I can do a really special special. The past four years I've gone out on the road with my night club act, and although I don't intend to do any routines from it on this TV show, it sharpened my timing," says Debbie.

This first special isn't until Nov. 21, but she's already hard at it. Bobby Darin, Donald O'Connor and Frank Gorshin will work with Debbie in singing, dancing and impressions segments.

"THERE'LL BE four 12-minute parts. I wanted Jimmy Stewart for one of them, but he's doing a film and can't, so I may change the idea I had for his segment because I don't like to compromise. Jimmy was just right for it," Debbie says.

Joe Layton, the young ex-choreographer who staged and conceived Barbra Streisand's two TV specials, has been hired as producer, and Debbie will spare no expense.

"ABC paid me $350,000 for that first special and I spent all of it. I didn't realize how much of it was being eaten up by rehearsals. Maybe I can do better financially this time, but I'm a perfectionist."

DESPITE her reputation for possessing more energy than any six other Hollywood stars, Debbie says she doubts very much if she will ever give in to doing a weekly TV show.

"Maybe, if my children had no shoes, I'd be forced to do it, but the way we work I'd be just a puddle on the floor in no time. Also, it's not good to be overexposed on TV if you have a movie career, which I'm fortunate enough to have.

"Then your movies wind up on TV, too, especially the family type I make. About 30 of my movies are on TV now. Doing a series for TV on top of that would end my film career. This way—with the specials—I'm trying to have my cake and eat it," she says.

DEBBIE'S marriage to shoe tycoon Harry Karl has its advantages for her as an actress, also, she readily admits.

"He's a businessman and knows how to advise me, but most actors have no one they can trust or turn to for advice. Their agents and business managers look only at the money to be made, not whether or not a picture or TV series is right for that actor.

"Look at Judy Garland. She's broke, yet I read that MGM just sold 'Wizard of Oz' to NBC for a few more million, and Judy doesn't get a penny of it after starring in the picture. It's not fair. The actors should get paid when their pictures are sold to TV," Debbie maintains.

(The Screen Actors Guild now has a contract with American film makers which includes payment for actors in pictures made after 1960, and since 1965, when it went into effect, actors have received $1,444,000 in such residual payments.)

FOR HER SECOND special on ABC this season Debbie would like to do one about the children of the world and base it on music written by singer-composer Portia Nelson.

"It's wonderful music and if I could get Frank Perry to produce and direct it, I know it would be wonderful. He's the one, you know, who did Truman Capote's 'A Christmas Memory' on ABC last season with Geraldine Page. I was just completely dissolved for two days after seeing it."

Msgr. Franzetta Runs Cemeteries

A former East Liverpool resident has been appointed director pro-tem of the three cemeteries in the Youngstown Diocese of the Catholic church.

He is the Very Rev. Msgr. Benedict C. Franzetta, who is episcopal vicar for finance of the diocese.

Msgr. Franzetta met with key personnel of the three cemeteries Wednesday to explain the reorganization program, following the trend for diocesan cemeteries throughout the country. The centralization of the cemeteries under the direction of the financial secretary was recommended by the National Cemetery Association.

Msgr. Franzetta, who will remain in charge of finances for the diocese, will take over the direction of Calvary Cemetery, Youngstown; Calvary Cemetery, Massillon - Canton, and All Souls Cemetery, Warren. He will be assisted by John Reagan, diocesan executive secretary of cemeteries.

"The one unified operation will establish uniform burial policies and uniform practices," Msgr. Franzetta said.

Two County Bankers Get Committee Posts

Two Columbiana County residents are among those named to standing committees of the Ohio Bankers Association for the 1967 - 68 year.

They are C. W. Furney, president of the Union Banking Co. at Columbiana, agriculture, and L. H. Colley, president of the First National Bank at Salem, public affairs.

No Unity Policy Toward Israel

Egpyt, Jordan Among Doves At Summit Parley

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — The Arab summit conference neared its end today with Egypt and Jordan apparently among the doves—for the time being—and unity of policy toward Israel still out of sight.

The conference ws expected to end tonight with a communique full of verbal hostility toward Israel and nothing else. Two proposals aimed at hurting Britain, the United States, and West Germany were dropped. One, by Iraq, called for a three-month halt in shipment of all Arab oil to the West followed by complete embargo on oil for the three western nations the Arabs claim were Israel's chief allies. The other called for withdrwal of Arb deposits from banks of those nations, a proposal aimed mainly at the oil nations' balances in Britain.

The split between moderates and extremists among the 13 Arab nations was emphasized by a report in Egypt's semiofficial Middle East News Agency that the three oil monarchies—Kuwait, Libya and Saudi Arabia—had agreed to contribute $378 million to bolster the economies of Egypt and Jordan.

The report sid Syria, the other active Arab participant in the war and Algeria's ally in demanding immediate resumption of military action, would get nothing from the fund becuse it "did not submit any assessment of its losses to the conference."

Syria boycotted the conference, the only Arab nation not represented.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser indicated to the conference that Egypt's military forces are not strong enough to fight to regain territory lost to Israel in the June war.

He suggested obliquely Wednesdy that the Arab nations should build up their strength and meanwhile turn to the diplomatic field to "eliminate the traces of Israeli aggression." But there was no indication he is ready to negotiate with Israel either directly or indirectly.

Conference sources say Nasser hopes to enlist international sympathy for the Arab cause and there is no sign that he has abandoned dreams of military revenge.

Jordan's King Hussein has gone out of his way to the conference to gain the sympathy of the Arab states. Some suspected he is preparing the way for separate negotiations with Israel but there was nothing to confirm this.

Nasser's agreement Thursday to end his long feud with King Faisal of Saudi Arabia over Yemen was seen as a move to conserve Egypt's strength and cut economic losses already heavy from the war.

President Abdullah Sallal of Republican Yemen virtualy rejected the peace plan for Yemen's civil war, in which Egyptian troops would leave Yemen in return for halt to Saudi Arabian aid to the royalist side. Sallal's delegation leaked a report that members of the three-nation Arab peace commission might be refused visas for Yemen. But Sallal apparently is powerless to prevent the departure of the estimated 27,000 Egyptian troops still in Yemen.

Once the Egyptians go, the royalists are expected to take over. A royalist spokesman at the United Nations in New York called the Egyptian-Saudi Arabian agreement acceptable to his side.

The movement of refugees back into Israeli-held areas of Jordan on the west bank of the Jordan River ended Thursday with Red Cross figures showing 13,955 persons had crossed altogether. Only 458 crossed Thursday, the deadline set by Israel.

About 170,000 Arabs applied for repatriation, but the Israelis approved only 19,000. The Israeli government is considering admitting the 5,000 on the approved list who did not cross before the deadline. But an Interior Ministry official said there would be no more returns permitted before mid-September.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—They held Edward L. Clark's retirement party at the rush hour in suburban Swarthmore's Pennsylvania Railroad station.

That way he got to say goodby to many of the busy commuters he's served in his years as stationmaster.

A group of the commuters arrived at 7 a.m. Thursday to set up tables covered with bright red tableclothes and serve coffee and doughnuts.

By the time the last commuter train pulled out at 9:26 a.m. he had seen more than 500 well-wishers.

Clark, 66, commented: "Now I know how President Johnson must feel with all this handshaking."

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Audrey Hepburn and Mel Ferrer have separated after 13 years of marriage, according to their personal representative.

The statement Thursday gave no reason for the separation but said there were no immediate plans for divorce.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Dana Wynter has filed suit for divorce against lawyer Gregson Bautzer.

In papers filed Thursday in Superior Court, Miss Wynter, 34, alleged that Bautzer's conduct "destroyed her happiness."

The couple married in June 1956 but they have been separated for the past 17 months. They have a son, Mark, 7.

Milwaukee Police Engulf Marchers And Arrest 125

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Police engulfed a line of 400 civil rights marchers Thursday night backing a 30-day ban on street demonstrations. At least 125 persons were arrested, including a white Roman Catholic priest, the Rev. James Groppi.

Two persons were injured.

There were indications that another march might be staged tonight.

"They can never get all of us," said one Negro nearly in tears after police scattered the marchers.

"Let's fill up the whole jail," said another.

It was the second straight night in which police cracked down on an attempted demonstration by the Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Fifty-eight persons were arrested Wednesday night.

A police car was burned and its windshield smashed soon after the dispersal of Thursday night's march. Also among those arrested was Mrs. Vel Phillips, Milwaukee's only Negro member of the Milwaukee Common Council.

Virtually all those arrested were charged with violating Mayor Henry Maier's edict against street demonstrations. The ban was imposed Wednesday in an emergency proclamation prompted by open housing marches by the youth council into the predominantly Polish South Side.

Father Groppi was also charged with resisting arrest and battery. He was released in $1,000 bond.

The priest said another march might be attempted tonight after a rally at St. Boniface church where he is assistant pastor.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Debbie Reynolds Is Back

Debbie Reynolds says she is concerned only with the future, which includes her doing two TV specials for ABC this season, but she hasn't forgotten her first and only TV special done in 1960 and generally panned by the critics.

Hal Humphrey

"Did I say panned? I think killed is the word. But I ran that one off on the screen the other day and liked it. I've wiped those reviews out of my head," she firmly states.

-:-

DEBBIE can be sure the critics and the viewers have forgotten. Seven years is a long time in TV's mass production marathon where it is difficult to remember what shows were seen last week. Anyway, she has signed a three-year TV pact with ABC which includes two more specials next season as well and maybe a weekly variety hour.

"I now feel I can do a really special special. The past four years I've gone out on the road with my night club act, and although I don't intend to do any routines from it on this TV show, it sharpened my timing," says Debbie.

This first special isn't until Nov. 21, but she's already hard at it. Bobby Darin, Donald O'Connor and Frank Gorshin will work with Debbie in singing, dancing and impressions segments.

"THERE'LL BE four 12-minute parts. I wanted Jimmy Stewart for one of them, but he's doing a film and can't, so I may change the idea I had for his segment because I don't like to compromise. Jimmy was just right for it," Debbie says.

Joe Layton, the young ex-choreographer who staged and conceived Barbra Streisand's two TV specials, has been hired as producer, and Debbie will spare no expense.

"ABC paid me $350,000 for that first special and I spent all of it. I didn't realize how much of it was being eaten up by rehearsals. Maybe I can do better financially this time, but I'm a perfectionist."

DESPITE her reputation for possessing more energy than any six other Hollywood stars, Debbie says she doubts very much if she will ever give in to doing a weekly TV show.

"Maybe, if my children had no shoes, I'd be forced to do it, but the way we work I'd be just a puddle on the floor in no time. Also, it's not good to be overexposed on TV if you have a movie career, which I'm fortunate enough to have.

"Then your movies wind up on TV, too, especially the family type I make. About 30 of my movies are on TV now. Doing a series for TV on top of that would end my film career. This way—with the specials—I'm trying to have my cake and eat it," she says.

DEBBIE'S marriage to shoe tycoon Harry Karl has its advantages for her as an actress, also, she readily admits.

"He's a businessman and knows how to advise me, but most actors have no one they can trust or turn to for advice. Their agents and business managers look only at the money to be made, not whether or not a picture or TV series is right for that actor.

"Look at Judy Garland. She's broke, yet I read that MGM just sold 'Wizard of Oz' to NBC for a few more million, and Judy doesn't get a penny of it after starring in the picture. It's not fair. The actors should get paid when their pictures are sold to TV," Debbie maintains.

(The Screen Actors Guild now has a contract with American film makers which includes payment for actors in pictures made after 1960, and since 1965, when it went into effect, actors have received $1,444,000 in such residual payments.)

FOR HER SECOND special on ABC this season Debbie would like to do one about the children of the world and base it on music written by singer-composer Portia Nelson.

"It's wonderful music and if I could get Frank Perry to produce and direct it, I know it would be wonderful. He's the one, you know, who did Truman Capote's 'A Christmas Memory' on ABC last season with Geraldine Page. I was just completely dissolved for two days after seeing it."

Msgr. Franzetta Runs Cemeteries

A former East Liverpool resident has been appointed director pro-tem of the three cemeteries in the Youngstown Diocese of the Catholic church.

He is the Very Rev. Msgr. Benedict C. Franzetta, who is episcopal vicar for finance of the diocese.

Msgr. Franzetta met with key personnel of the three cemeteries Wednesday to explain the reorganization program, following the trend for diocesan cemeteries throughout the country. The centralization of the cemeteries under the direction of the financial secretary was recommended by the National Cemetery Association.

Msgr. Franzetta, who will remain in charge of finances for the diocese, will take over the direction of Calvary Cemetery, Youngstown; Calvary Cemetery, Massillon - Canton, and All Souls Cemetery, Warren. He will be assisted by John Reagan, diocesan executive secretary of cemeteries.

"The one unified operation will establish uniform burial policies and uniform practices," Msgr. Franzetta said.

Two County Bankers Get Committee Posts

Two Columbiana County residents are among those named to standing committees of the Ohio Bankers Association for the 1967 - 68 year.

They are C. W. Furney, president of the Union Banking Co. at Columbiana, agriculture, and L. H. Colley, president of the First National Bank at Salem, public affairs.

No Unity Policy Toward Israel

Egpyt, Jordan Among Doves At Summit Parley

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — The Arab summit conference neared its end today with Egypt and Jordan apparently among the doves—for the time being—and unity of policy toward Israel still out of sight.

The conference ws expected to end tonight with a communique full of verbal hostility toward Israel and nothing else. Two proposals aimed at hurting Britain, the United States, and West Germany were dropped. One, by Iraq, called for a three-month halt in shipment of all Arab oil to the West followed by complete embargo on oil for the three western nations the Arabs claim were Israel's chief allies. The other called for withdrwal of Arb deposits from banks of those nations, a proposal aimed mainly at the oil nations' balances in Britain.

The split between moderates and extremists among the 13 Arab nations was emphasized by a report in Egypt's semiofficial Middle East News Agency that the three oil monarchies—Kuwait, Libya and Saudi Arabia—had agreed to contribute $378 million to bolster the economies of Egypt and Jordan.

The report sid Svria, the other active Arab participant in the war and Algeria's ally in demanding immediate resumption of military action, would get nothing from the fund becuse it "did not submit any assessment of its losses to the conference."

Syria boycotted the conference, the only Arab nation not represented.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser indicated to the conference that Egypt's military forces are not strong enough to fight to regain territory lost to Israel in the June war.

He suggested obliquely Wednesdy that the Arab nations should build up their strength and meanwhile turn to the diplomatic field to "eliminate the traces of Israeli aggression." But there was no indication he is ready to negotiate with Israel either directly or indirectly.

Conference sources say Nasser hopes to enlist international sympathy for the Arab cause and there is no sign that he has abandoned dreams of military revenge.

Jordan's King Hussein has gone out of his way to the conference to gain the sympathy of the Arab states. Some suspected he is preparing the way for separate negotiations with Israel but there was nothing to confirm this.

Nasser's agreement Thursday to end his long feud with King Faisal of Saudi Arabia over Yemen was seen as a move to conserve Egypt's strength and cut economic losses already heavy from the war.

President Abdullah Sallal of Republican Yemen virtualy rejected the peace plan for Yemen's civil war, in which Egyptian troops would leave Yemen in return for halt to Saudi Arabian aid to the royalist side. Sallal's delegation leaked a report that members of the three-nation Arab peace commission might be refused visas for Yemen. But Sallal apparently is powerless to prevent the departure of the estimated 27,000 Egyptian troops still in Yemen.

Once the Egyptians go, the royalists are expected to take over. A royalist spokesman at the United Nations in New York called the Egyptian-Saudi Arabian agreement acceptable to his side.

The movement of refugees back into Israeli-held areas of Jordan on the west bank of the Jordan River ended Thursday with Red Cross figures showing 13,955 persons had crossed altogether. Only 458 crossed Thursday, the deadline set by Israel.

Madonna Downs Oak Glen In Second Half 20-7

Matijevich, Vrtar Score For Dons

Two long touchdown runs in the third quarter propelled Weirton Madonna to a 20-7 win over Oak Glen in the season's opening football game at Newell Memorial Stadium last night.

Only 43 seconds in the second half had elapsed when Dick Matijevich broke over left tackle and scampered 58 yards to break a 7-7 tie. With nine seconds left in the period triple-threat quarterback Billy Vrtar started left on a keeper, cut back toward the center of the field, received some fine blocks and was in the clear for the last 45 yards of his 64-yard ramble that put the game on ice for the Blue Dons.

The game started promisingly for Oak Glen, as the Golden Bears scored before the visitors had their hands on the ball. On the first series of downs, with third and 13 on his own 26, quarterback Craig Whittington hit end Dan Crago with a bullet pass on the 50. Crago got to the Madonna 38 before being pulled down from behind by Matijevich.

THE BLUE and Gold ground out the 38 yards in 13 plays, with slotback Bob Miller going over from the two to score with four from the 32 and fullback Harold Marshall, given the ball on a draw play on a fourth and seven situation on the 22, rolled 10 yards on another crucial play.

Marshall's try for the extra point hit the right upright, but bounced through to make it 7-0.

A clipping penalty on the kickoff set Madonna back to its own 23, but the Silver and Blue marched steadily on the ground to the Oak Glen 12. Matijevich and John Avoli did most of the carrying, though Vrtar made the longest gain of the drive, 16 yards.

THE VISITORS were halted on downs at the 5, and a penalty helped the home team out of the hole. They advanced to the 34 and Crago went back to punt on fourth down.

Crago was slow getting the ball away and it was smothered by Dan Kowalski, who recovered on the Golden Bear 26. On a third and nine play, Vrtar completed his only pass of the game — to Matijevich, and he got to the seven before being tripped up by Dan Foltz.

Avoli was stopped cold, but Vrtar swept left end to the one and Matijevich went over left guard for the score with 2:11 left in the half. Vrtar, who also punts and kicks off, split the uprights for the tying point.

THE FIRST play following the ensuing kickoff was the most exciting of the game. Whittington passed for Earl Jackson, but the ball bounced off his hands and was grabbed by Madonna's Albert Roman, who returned to the 22, where he was hit hard and fumbled, Oak Glen's Tom McGeehan recovering for a net loss of 12 yards on the play.

Coach Bob Starkey's club was unable to move and again Crago was slow getting off a punt. This one was partially blocked and recovered by Madonna's Bob Szymanck on the OG 18. Good pressure by the defensive line prevented Vrtar from getting off an accurate pass, so on fourth down the versatile Vrtar tried a field goal, but it was quite short.

Coach Joe Krivak or someone on his staff must have spotted a weakness at halftime, for the first two plays of the second half were over left tackle.

TIEING TD. Rich Matijevich scores for Weirton Madonna against Oak Glen to tie the game at 7-7 in the second period at Newell Memorial Stadium last night. Defenders are Glenn Greathouse (72), Harold Marshall (24) and Dan Staley (62). Score came on a one yard plunge. Madonna won 20-7.

Two Oak Glen Gridders Hurt

The Oak Glen Golden Bears suffered two injuries in last night's loss to Weirton Madonna. Fullback Harold Marshall, who wears a brace as a result of a back injury last year, reinjured his back last night, but is in school today. End Bob Coleman suffered an ankle injury, the severeness of which was not known this morning.

$200,000 Carling Golf Tourney Opens Today

WOODBRIDGE, Ont. (AP) — Not many men can earn upwards of $120,000 a year, have plenty of time to spend with the family and enjoy a hobby, but easy-going Julius Boros is not like most athletes.

An elder statesman among the 200 players who battle it out each week for a slice of the $4,500,000 prize money at stake on the North American golf tour, Boros wears his success almost in anonymity.

The soft-spoken 6-footer seldom attracts much attention from fans until they suddenly see his name near the top of the list in the late-going. It will be the same when he tees off today in the first round of the $200,000 Carling World Championship at the hilly and tough 7,024-yard, par 36-35—71 Toronto Board of Trade Country Club.

Among other top stars in the field are Arnold Palmer, Roberto de Vincenzo of Argentina, defending champion Bruce Devlin of Australia and 1964 winner Bobby Nichols, Billy Casper of San Diego, Calif., Gary Player of South Africa, Tommy Horton and Tony Jacklin of England, Australian Peter Thomson and Kel Nagle, and Bob Charles of New Zealand and Canadians George Knudson and Al Balding.

Top prize is $35,000. The field will be cut to the low 75 and ties after 36 holes and all starters are guaranteed $400.

Red Sox Lose To White Sox, Still Lead

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The way Eddie Stanky has been putting his "quick hook" into operation, the only way Francisco Carlos is going to complete a game is by throwing a no-hitter.

For six innings Thursday, White Sox rookie Carlos set Boston down without a hit, but then Carl Yastrzemski walked, George Scott hit a single, both moved up on a sacrifice and Stanky was out to the mound in a sprint.

"Young man," said the Chicago manager, "I need a strikeout right here." In came Hoyt Wilhelm, who not only did not get the strikeout but gave up two runs as the Red Sox took a temporary lead before some Chicago homers settled the matter 4-2.

"It's pretty difficult to take a man out with a one-hitter," Stanky allowed after the game. "I realize that, but we're fighting for $10,000 and I'm managing for 25 men."

For Carlos, it was a familiar story. A week ago, in his major league debut against these same Red Sox, he went 6 1-3 innings without allowing any runs, but left the game, which the White Sox eventually won. He threw precisely 79 pitches in each game.

"In my book, he's won two games," said Stanky of the 26-year-old right-hander who posted an 11-8 record at Indianapolis before joining the White Sox.

In the only other American League action Thursday, Minnesota outlasted Baltimore 10-9 and Washington blanked New York 6-0. Detroit, California, Cleveland and Kansas City were idle.

The White Sox went ahead for good in the eighth when Tommie Agee's 13th homer tied the game and, after Jerry Adair's two-out error let Pete Ward bat, he blasted his 16th homer in the right field bleachers.

When Stanky saw that "Wilhelm's knuckler wasn't knuckling," he went back to the bullpen in a flash for Don McMahon, who retired six batters in a row to nail down the victory.

The Red Sox' lead over the Twins was reduced to half a game, while Detroit is one game out and the White Sox are 1½ games behind.

Rich Reese came off the bench with one out in the bottom of the ninth and sent his fourth homer of the season into the right-center field bullpen to put the Twins one-half game behind the Red Sox.

Baltimore had scored three times in the top of the inning on consecutive doubles by Boog Powell and Dave Johnson and Curt Blefary's two-run homer. The Orioles also got four runs in the fifth, two on Brooks Robinson's homer and another on a shot by Dave Johnson.

Frank Bertaina held the Yankees to three hits and allowed the same number to get as far as second base. Ed Brinkman drove in two runs with a single in the Senators' three-run eighth inning.

Americans 20-1 Choice To Retain America Cup

By DON GUY

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The America's Cup may be the Holy Grail of international yachting, but if the cup races were held in Yankee Stadium or Fenway Park the fans probably would storm the box office for a refund.

As a sporting event, the odds, based on past history, are more than 10 to 1 against a challenger on a single race and 20 to 1 against winning the cup.

The United States has won all but six of the 64 races held in 116 years.

With due respect to doughty Dame Pattie of Australia and her gallant crew, it looks like "The Dame" may well end up another Australian sheep for slaughter.

The 20th challenge, a best-of-7 series, starts Sept. 12, 10 miles at sea from this famed resort.

Since the schooner America first won the cup against an English fleet in 1851, the ornate Victorian pitcher has never left the sacred precincts of the New York Yacht Club.

The Australians have a new boat and a bold skipper in Jock Sturrock. But the Americans match them skipper for skipper in Emil "Bus" Mosbacher, who turned back an Australian challenge by Sturrock aboard Gretel in 1962.

In the sloop Intrepid, the United States has the latest creation of Olin Stephens, whose wizardry as a yacht designer has been behind every American defender with one exception since 1937.

But Intrepid's greatest advantage is American technology.

In the past two decades, dacron sails and the synthetic ropes to handle them have tossed overboard thousands of years of seafaring history written with canvas sails and hemp.

After the sea lords of the New York Yacht Club saw Sturrock win one race and lose four in 1962, they ruled against a challenger using gear and sails not manufactured in his own country.

Ted Hood of Marblehead, Mass., had impartially supplied his tightly woven dacron sails to friend and foe alike in 1962. Today, Hood sails are available only to Intrepid and the three rivals she defeated earlier in the summer.

Sails that stretch lose races because the airfoil is destroyed. In addition, lighter, stronger sails save weight below. Every extra pound high on a 90-foot mast has to be matched by 10 pounds deep in the keel.

Beaver Local Line To Be Small, Inexperienced

Klembara Key To Passing Attack

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Beaver Local High School's football team tied for the championship of the Buckeye Border League last year with a 3-1-1 mark, but coach Don Ross thinks it will be hard to repeat.

We'll be a contender only with a lot of extra effort," he says. "We're small, and it looks like a tough year." The Beavers were 5-4-1 overall last season, but "we lost a lot of seniors", Ross remarks.

The Beavers have only six lettermen.

The Beaver offense will be built around the passing of veteran senior Dennis Klembara, 165 pounds. Other lettermen in the backfield are three juniors, tailback Ron Downer, 150, and fullbacks Lou Brown, 150 and Dan Myers, 160. Also slated to see plenty of backfield action are Ken Campbell, 130 pound junior tailback, and Ron Aughinbaugh, 135 - pound senior wingback. The Beavers will employ the Wing-T and I formations, using a balanced line.

The line lacks experience, with only two lettermen, senior tackle Bill Cole, 165, and senior guard Jim Burcham, 165. Sam Ferguson, a 145 senior, will be the other guard and Dave Humphrey, a 165 senior will be the other tackle. Junior John Smith, 150, will handle the center spot.

At tight end will be senior Sam Hall, 150, and at split end a sophomore, Fred Brown, 140. End Rex Campbell, has suffered a shoulder separation and will be out 3-5 weeks.

Others who will see lots of action are seniors Bob Millborn, 150, guard, Dave Doak, 160, defensive halfback, Richard Spooner, 160, center, John Possage, 165, defensive tackle and Bill Bowersock, 135, defensive end; junior Gary Klembara, brother of Dennis, 160, end; and sophomores Scott Dubberly, 130, wingback and John Lyons, 150, guard. Oak Glen

Avoni gained 14 and then Matijevich went for the TD.

OAK GLEN came fighting back, however, and after an exchange of punts drove from its own 39 to the Weirton 27, only to lose the ball on downs. Three plays later Madonna had completed the scoring on Vrtar's long run.

Again Oak Glen came driving back, from their own 31 to the Madonna 24. But Roman made his second interception of the ball game, this one near the goal line, to blunt the threat. After a punt, a 30-yard pass-run play from Whittington to Steve Staley got the ball back to the Madonna 31, but Tom Nogay, a defensive demon all evening, and John Greco broke through on two plays to knock the Bears back to midfield.

IN GENERAL Madonna's line kept Whittington under pressure all evening. He proved an adept scrambler at times, but was caught for losses on five occasions. Reserve quarterback Steve Logston was also dumped twice, without being able to get off a pass. Many of Whittington's throws were hurried by the pressuring defense and sailed far wide of the mark, though some passes were in the hands of the receivers and dropped.

Six was the leading ground gainer for the losers, with 70 yards on 17 attempts. Matejevich and Vrtar each gained 103 yards for the victors, on 10 carries for Matejevich and 9 for Vrtar. Crago was the leading receiver in the game, with two grabs for 50 yards.

Both teams used mainly a slot-T, though the Blue Dons occassionally went to a shotgun formation, and not always to throw. They preferred to run the ball to the outside, not always with great success.

Oak Glen has two weeks off before traveling to Wellsburg on Sept. 15.

D. Lindsey Will Start For Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Linebacker Dale Lindsey will get a chance to win a regular job Saturday night when the Cleveland Browns face the world champion Green Bay Packers in the second game of the annual National Football League doubleheader.

Browns' Coach Blanton Collier said he told Lindsey earlier this week of his decision because "Dale is a fellow who likes to prepare himself mentally for a game."

"In fact, we've told all the fellows who the starters will be," Collier said Thursday. "This gives them all a chance to prepare themselves."

Emerson, Other Seeds Win In Tennis Event

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Roy Emerson is trophy hunting again at the U.S. National Singles Championships, but the Australian's days as a regular on the world-wide tennis safari appear to be numbered.

"I've been away from home since March 5," Emerson said Thursday after opening his drive for a third U.S. men's title with a straight set victory over young Georges Goven of France. "I'd like to settle down, most likely back home in Brisbane. I'll be 31 in November and I've played a lot of tournament tennis."

Emerson, seeded second to countryman John Newcombe in the tournament he won in 1961 and 1964, whipped Goven, France's 19-year-old prodigy, 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 to lead a quartet of seeded players into the second round.

The next barrier for Emerson, who first played in the West Side Tennis Club classic as a skinny youngster 13 years ago, is hard-hitting Jim Osborne of Honolulu. He ousted Inderjit Singh of Cincinnati, by way of India, 6-2, 6-3, 6-1 Thursday.

Following Emerson into the second round were fourth seeded Nicola Pilic of Yugoslavia, No. 5 Cliff Drysdale of South Africa and No. 7 Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, the top-rated American in the starting field of 128.

Pilic defeated Lamar Roemer of Houston 6-1, 6-1, 6-4; Drysdale drubbed Butch Newman of Havelock, N.C., 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 and Graebner bounced Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Tex., 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Meanwhile, Wimbledon queen Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the favorite to bring the United States its first women's crown since 1961, led a contingent of four seeded American girls into the second round.

National Slow-Pitch Softball Event Opens

CLEVELAND (AP)—The National Men's Open Slow Pitch Softball Tournament opens tonight in suburban Parma with 15 games in the first round.

Thirty-one teams from around the country will play in the double elimination tournament until a champ is crowned Monday night. Michael's Lounge of Detroit is defending champ.

OU Loses Quarterback

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University's Mid-American Conference football team suffered a blow in its first day of practice Thursday when Coach Bill Hess learned that he'll lose his No. 2 quarterback, Ron DeLucca, for five to six weeks.

The junior from West Pittston, Pa., who was the regular quarterback last year, is due for a hernia operation.

DeLucca was beaten out for the starting quarterback post in spring practice by Cleve Bryant, Canton sophomore, but Hess had been counting on him to give depth and experience to the quarterback spot.

DeLucca's loss puts one of two other prospects into the No. 2 spot—Bob Brown, Napoleon senior, or Frank Baumholtz, Cleveland junior.

Klembara Key To Passing Attack

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Beaver Local High School's football team tied for the championship of the Buckeye Border League last year with a 3-1-1 mark, but coach Don Ross thinks it will be hard to repeat.

We'll be a contender only with a lot of extra effort," he says. "We're small, and it looks like a tough year." The Beavers were 5-4-1 overall last season, but "we lost a lot of seniors", Ross remarks.

The Beavers have only six lettermen.

The Beaver offense will be built around the passing of veteran senior Dennis Klembara, 165 pounds. Other lettermen in the backfield are three juniors, tailback Ron Downer, 150, and fullbacks Lou Brown, 150 and Dan Myers, 160. Also slated to see plenty of backfield action are Ken Campbell, 130 pound junior tailback, and Ron Aughinbaugh, 135 - pound senior wingback. The Beavers will employ the Wing-T and I formations, using a balanced line.

The line lacks experience, with only two lettermen, senior tackle Bill Cole, 165, and senior guard Jim Burcham, 165. Sam Ferguson, a 145 senior, will be the other guard and Dave Humphrey, a 165 senior will be the other tackle. Junior John Smith, 150, will handle the center spot.

At tight end will be senior Sam Hall, 150, and at split end a sophomore, Fred Brown, 140. End Rex Campbell, has suffered a shoulder separation and will be out 3-5 weeks.

Others who will see lots of action are seniors Bob Millborn, 150, guard, Dave Doak, 160, defensive halfback, Richard Spooner, 160, center, John Possage, 165, defensive tackle and Bill Bowersock, 135, defensive end; junior Gary Klembara, brother of Dennis, 160, end; and sophomores Scott Dubberly, 130, wingback and John Lyons, 150, guard. Bowersock will be out two weeks with cracked ribs.

The Beavers open Sept. 9 with a rare day game at Columbiana, and Ross thinks that the Clippers, along with Leetonia, will be the toughest teams on the schedule.

Complete schedule:
Sept. 9—at Columbiana, 2 p.m.

D. Lindsey Will Start For Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Linebacker Dale Lindsey will get a chance to win a regular job Saturday night when the Cleveland Browns face the world champion Green Bay Packers in the second game of the annual National Football League doubleheader.

Browns' Coach Blanton Collier said he told Lindsey earlier this week of his decision because "Dale is a fellow who likes to prepare himself mentally for a game."

"In fact, we've told all the fellows who the starters will be," Collier said Thursday. "This gives them all a chance to prepare themselves."

Emerson, Other Seeds Win In Tennis Event

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Roy Emerson is trophy hunting again at the U.S. National Singles Championships, but the Australian's days as a regular on the world-wide tennis safari appear to be numbered.

"I've been away from home since March 5," Emerson said Thursday after opening his drive for a third U.S. men's title with a straight set victory over young Georges Goven of France. "I'd like to settle down, most likely back home in Brisbane. I'll be 31 in November and I've played a lot of tournament tennis."

Emerson, seeded second to countryman John Newcombe in the tournament he won in 1961 and 1964, whipped Goven, France's 19-year-old prodigy, 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 to lead a quartet of seeded players into the second round.

The next barrier for Emerson, who first played in the West Side Tennis Club classic as a skinny youngster 13 years ago, is hard-hitting Jim Osborne of Honolulu. He ousted Inderjit Singh of Cincinnati, by way of India, 6-2, 6-3, 6-1 Thursday.

Following Emerson into the second round were fourth seeded Nicola Pilic of Yugoslavia, No. 5 Cliff Drysdale of South Africa and No. 7 Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, the top-rated American in the starting field of 128.

Pilic defeated Lamar Roemer of Houston 6-1, 6-1, 6-4; Drysdale drubbed Butch Newman of Havelock, N.C., 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 and Graebner bounced Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Tex., 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Meanwhile, Wimbledon queen Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the favorite to bring the United States its first women's crown since 1961, led a contingent of four seeded American girls into the second round.

National Slow-Pitch Softball Event Opens

CLEVELAND (AP)—The National Men's Open Slow Pitch Softball Tournament opens tonight in suburban Parma with 15 games in the first round.

Thirty-one teams from around the country will play in the double elimination tournament until a champ is crowned Monday night. Michael's Lounge of Detroit is defending champ.

OU Loses Quarterback

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University's Mid-American Conference football team suffered a blow in its first day of practice Thursday when Coach Bill Hess learned that he'll lose his No. 2 quarterback, Ron DeLucca, for five to six weeks.

The junior from West Pittston, Pa., who was the regular quarterback last year, is due for a hernia operation.

DeLucca was beaten out for the starting quarterback post in spring practice by Cleve Bryant, Canton sophomore, but Hess had been counting on him to give depth and experience to the quarterback spot.

DeLucca's loss puts one of two other prospects into the No. 2 spot—Bob Brown, Napoleon senior, or Frank Baumholtz, Cleveland junior.

Cepeda, Clemente Continue To Hit

Cards Roll, Bucs Beat Phils 6-4

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's a good thing for the rest of the National League that St. Louis' Orlando Cepeda isn't feeling very chipper.

"I'm dragging," Cepeda complained. "You get tired about now. You can't keep going bam, bam, bam."

One Cepeda bam was enough for the Houston Astros Thursday night.

The weary slugger smashed his 24th homer, walked twice, stole a base and hit a sacrifice fly in the Cardinals' 5-1 victory over the Astros.

Cepeda scored two runs and drove in two more, running his major league leading RBI total to 104. He is batting .344, six points less than Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, who tagged three hits in the Pirates' 6-4 victory over Philadelphia.

Elsewhere in the National League Thursday, Cincinnati stopped San Francisco 3-1, Atlanta edged Los Angeles 5-4 and Chicago nipped New York 2-1 in 11 innings.

Ray Washburn won his ninth game for the Cardinals with late-inning help from Ron Willis. Jimmy Wynn accounted for Houston's only run with his 32nd homer.

Cepeda's homer came in the third inning against loser Bo Belinsky, 3-9. The big slugger hit his sacrifice fly in the two-run wrapup eighth.

Matty Alou punched an infield single that scored Al Luplow with the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning as the Pirates whipped the Phillies.

Luplow, batting for winner Bob Veale, had doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice before Alou delivered.

Juan Pizarro, who saved Veale's 15th victory, singled home Pittsburgh's final run in the eighth.

Hank Aaron touched off a three-run Atlanta rally in the eighth inning with his 33rd homer and Rico Carty climaxed the spurt with a two-run pinch double as the Braves beat Los Angeles.

Aaron's homer was his 475th career shot and tied him for ninth place on the all-time major league list with Stan Musial.

After the homer, Clete Boyer reached base on an error and Mack Jones walked before Carty doubled. It marked the first time in two seasons that the Braves defeated Claude Osteen.

Rookie catcher John Bench tagged a two-run double — only his second major league hit — to break a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning and carry Cincinnati past San Francisco.

Jim Maloney, who struck out six straight batters over one stretch, hurled a four-hitter and gained his 13th victory. Lee May homered for the Reds snapping loser Mike McCormick's 25-inning scoreless streak. McCormick is 18-7.

Al Spangler's 11th inning pinch single drove in Chicago's winning run against the Mets. Ernie Banks had opened the inning with a single and reached second when Randy Hundley was hit by a pitch.

With a count of one ball and two strikes on Ted Savage, Spangler was sent up to swing and delivered the winning hit.

INSIDE. Dennis Menke of the Braves goes into contortions to avoid being hit by a Claude Osteen pitch at Atlanta last night. Catcher is John Roseboro of the Dodgers, who gloves inside pitch. Braves won 5-4. (UPI Telephoto)

Chiefs Have No Apparent Weaknesses

Kansas City Should Dominate AFL

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP) — Earlier this summer Hank Stram said the most pressing question mark facing his Kansas City Chiefs was place kicking.

Either Hank had his tongue in his cheek or his eyes closed.

For the only question Jan Stenerud might present is how far back he can go before he misses on a field goal try.

Stenerud is a rookie from Norway by way of Montana State who is replacing Mike Mercer, the best kicker in the American Football League last season. He booted a 59-yard field goal in college and threatens to kick some long ones, if not quite that long, for the Chiefs.

But if Stram, at the time he made the statement, really felt that was the Chiefs' most pressing problem, it showed how well off Kansas City is compared with all the other teams in the league which were, and still are, worrying about quarterbacks, tackles, linebackers, corner backs and anything else you care to name.

The Chiefs' prestige was slightly tarnished in their 35-10 Super Bowl loss to Green Bay last January, but their reputation as by far the best team in the AFL still stands.

They've proved it already by crushing Oakland, their No. 1 rival in the Western Division, 48-0 and then trouncing the Chicago Bears of the National League 66-24, both within five days in exhibition play.

Preseason games might not have much importance, but it is fair to say the outcome of those contests was significant.

"I think we're better now than we were a year ago," Stram said, offering an ominous note to the other AFL teams. "We've had more quality competition this year than ever before."

What he means is the Chiefs have greater depth than before, and adding depth to the Chiefs is like giving an octopus another arm.

In the backfield Kansas City has Len Dawson, the league's leading quarterback in 1966; Mike Garrett, second best rusher; Curt McClinton, eighth in rushing, and spare running back Bert Coan, ninth in rushing.

Coan spells Garrett while McClinton's replacements will be Gene Thomas and Aaron Brown, who has been converted from a defensive lineman. Fullbacks don't come much bigger than Brown, who stands 6-feet-5 and weighs 265.

For receivers, Dawson has split end Chris Burford and flanker Otis Taylor, who each caught 58 passes last season, plus tight end Fred Arbanas, one of nine men the Chiefs placed on the All-Star team.

The rest of the offensive line consists of tackles Jim Tyrer and Dave Hill, guards Ed Budde and Curt Merz and center Jon Gilliam, who apparently has completely recovered from a knee operation.

Defensively, the Chiefs are as strong as anyone and stronger than most. The front four includes ends Jerry Mays and Chuck Hurston plus tackles Buck Buchanan and Andy Rice or Ed Lothamer.

The linebacking is extremely rugged with Bobby Bell, Sherrill Headrick and E. J. Holub holding down the starting spots and rookies Willie Lanier and Jim Lynch providing good back-up protection.

The secondary has a new face, corner back Fletcher Smith, only because Fred Williamson broke his arm. It's just possible, though, that Williamson will have a tough time getting back into the line-up when he returns.

The three returning starters are cornerback Willie Mitchell and safeties Johnny Robinson and Bobby Hunt, the latter two the top pass interceptors in the league last year, each grabbing 10.

And to top everything off, the Chiefs have discovered a kick return artist named Noland Smith, who is only 5-foot-6¼ and who has scored several touchdowns in exhibition games on punt and kickoff returns of better than 70 yards.

Then there's Stram's sew Tight End I formation . . . but by this time Kansas City's opponents have to cry too much.

Ohio Is Host To Ladies Big Golf Classic

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Veteran Mickey Wright, who holds more tournament victories than any other feminine swinger, is favored to successfully defend her ladies' World Series of Golf title here this weekend.

But the five other women who make up the field for the $32,000 tournament will shoot the works in a bid to grab the $10,000 first prize money.

Firing starts at 1:30, EDT, Saturday in the 36-hole medal play test over the par 72, 6,101-yard Snyder Park golf course.

That was four strokes better than runner-up Sandra Haynie of Fort Worth, Tex., who picked up $7,500 for her second-place finish.

The line-up for the World Series is virtually the same as a year ago except that Susie Maxwell, fourth in official money winnings on the LPGA tour, replaces Sandra Spuzich of Indianapolis.

Miss Wright's stiffest challenge is likely to come from Kathy Whitworth, the 28-year-old San Antonio, Tex., golfer who has won more than $22,000 this year to top the official money list.

Carol Mann, the towering 6-foot-3 pro who finished third in last year's World, one stroke better than Miss Whitworth, and Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., round out the field.

Vern Law's Retirement Announced

PITTSBURGH (AP) — To those on the Pittsburgh Pirates who knew him well, Vernon Law's retirement came as no surprise.

Weary and aching after 16 seasons, most of them with a losing club, Law, 37, no longer possessed the ability which once vaulted him to the pinnacle of his profession.

Law, winner of only two games this year for seventh-place Pittsburgh, plagued by arm trouble and hobbled by a groin injury, announced Thursday he was calling it quits.

Law led the Pirates' pitching staff for most of his 16 years — 10 of them in the second division — and in 1960 carried them to a World Series victory and won the Cy Young award as baseball's best pitcher.

2 Local Youths See Browns Drill At Hiram Camp

Two East Liverpool youngsters got a good look at the Cleveland Browns training camp Thursday at Hiram.

Jeff Fellouzis and Mike Dauka were guests of Browns defensive line coach Nick Skorich who is a friend of Jeff's father Emanuel Fellouzis.

Both Jeff and Mike play in the Little League football program here.

A 15-year-old Weirton motorcyclist is in "satisfactory" condition at Weirton General Hospital today after an accident Thursday night.

Larry G. Doak of Cove Station was injured on Kings Creek Rd., near Pleasant Valley about 9, according to the Hancock County sheriff's office.

He suffered abrasions of the body, according to the hospital.

Deputies said details of the accident are not yet available and the investigation is continuing.

Fog Hurts Amateur Golfers

By FRANK PITMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Some phrases and words, most unprintable, to enrich golfdom's colorful vocabulary are flowing from the 67th U.S. Amateur Championship over the Broadmoor Wast's fog-bound, wind-blown, water-logged links.

Bob Dickson of McAlester, Okla., the reigning British Amateur king, was gracious and happy after posting his one-over par 71 to take a three-stroke lead in Thursday's partly completed first round.

Consequently his original contribution to golf grammar was negligible.

Bristling, descriptive phrases about the mounain-rimmed 6,946-yard par 35-35—70 course cascaded from the lips of players like former champion Bob Murphy — a 77 shooter — and Bill Harvey, the 36-year-old Divie Amateur champion.

Murphy, the 1965 winner of this tourney from Nichols, Fla., opened his post-round discussion with sportswriters by throwing his shoes across the locker room.

But then every player coming off the misty, fog-shrouded course into the locker room first yanked off his soaked shoes and wrenched the water from his socks.

That seemed to release some of the frustrations accumulated during three interruptions in play caused by drifting clouds of fog that blanked out the greens and fairways at various times during trying day.

Harvey's graphic opinions reflected his sentiments after posting a 78 to replace his 71 opening round until it was washed out.

Better things were promised today for the second round. The Weather Bureau forecast clearing skies and a high of around 70 degrees, up about 25 degrees from Thursday.

James Harlow Takes Over As WVU President

MORGANTOWN (AP) — James G. Harlow took over officially today as the 16th president of West Virginia University.

Harlow, formerly dean of the Education Department of the University of Oklahoma, replaces Harry B. Heflin who served as acting president after the resignation of Paul A. Miller in July, 1966.

The 54-year-old Harlow received a doctor's degree in education from the University of Chicago after completing graduate work in physics at Oklahoma.

Thursday night he addressed 2,300 WVU freshmen in the university fieldhouse. Harlow told the first - year students only the courageous and well - educated will reap the benefits of our society.

4 Windows Smashed In East End Vandalism

Windows were broken in two business places, an auto and a home in four instances of East End vandalism overnight, police reported.

A vandal hurled a stone through a 3-x-4-foot plate glass window in the offices of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association at 1032 Pennsylvania Ave., while a window also was broken in a home at 1048 Pennsylvania Ave. which is owned by the association, police said.

Vandals also broke a 24-x-36-inch pane of glass in overhead doors at a service station on Mulberry St. owned by Charles Jordan and smashed the windshield in a 1955 model auto owned by Robert Craig of 1011 St. George St. while it was parked at his home.

When the 48 - page regulation first was enacted by Council, the city had only a limited supply. Additional copies were turned out on a rotary duplicator to fill the demand from realtors, attorneys and others, the mayor explained. The charge is $2.

Cepeda, Clemente Continue To Hit

Cards Roll, Bucs Beat Phils 6-4

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's a good thing for the rest of the National League that St. Louis' Orlando Cepeda isn't feeling very chipper.

"I'm dragging," Cepeda complained. "You get tired about now. You can't keep going bam, bam, bam."

One Cepeda bam was enough for the Houston Astros Thursday night.

The weary slugger smashed his 24th homer, walked twice, stole a base and hit a sacrifice fly in the Cardinals' 5-1 victory over the Astros.

Cepeda scored two runs and drove in two more, running his major league leading RBI total to 104. He is batting .344, six points less than Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, who tagged three hits in the Pirates' 6-4 victory over Philadelphia.

Elsewhere in the National League Thursday, Cincinnati stopped San Francisco 3-1, Atlanta edged Los Angeles 5-4 and Chicago nipped New York 2-1 in 11 innings.

Ray Washburn won his ninth game for the Cardinals with late-inning help from Ron Willis. Jimmy Wynn accounted for Houston's only run with his 32nd homer.

Cepeda's homer came in the third inning against loser Bo Belinsky, 3-9. The big slugger hit his sacrifice fly in the two-run wrapup eighth.

Matty Alou punched an infield single that scored Al Luplow with the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning as the Pirates whipped the Phillies.

Luplow, batting for winner Bob Veale, had doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice before Alou delivered.

Juan Pizarro, who saved Veale's 15th victory, singled home Pittsburgh's final run in the eighth.

Hank Aaron touched off a three-run Atlanta rally in the eighth inning with his 33rd homer and Rico Carty climaxed the spurt with a two-run pinch double as the Braves beat Los Angeles.

Aaron's homer was his 475th career shot and tied him for ninth place on the all-time major league list with Stan Musial.

After the homer, Clete Boyer reached base on an error and Mack Jones walked before Carty doubled. It marked the first time in two seasons that the Braves defeated Claude Osteen.

Rookie catcher John Bench tagged a two-run double — only his second major league hit — to break a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning and carry Cincinnati past San Francisco.

Jim Maloney, who struck out six straight batters over one stretch, hurled a four-hitter and gained his 13th victory. Lee May homered for the Reds snapping loser Mike McCormick's 25-inning scoreless streak. McCormick is 18-7.

Al Spangler's 11th inning pinch single drove in Chicago's winning run against the Mets. Ernie Banks had opened the inning with a single and reached second when Randy Hundley was hit by a pitch.

With a count of one ball and two strikes on Ted Savage, Spangler was sent up to swing and delivered the winning hit.

Lawrenceville Beats E. Liverpool Softies

The East Liverpool Softies, a women's softball team, traveled to Arsenal Field in Pittsburgh last night and lost to Lawrenceville, 11-6.

The teams will play a return match at the Little League field in Thompson Park Sept. 17.

Chiefs Have No Apparent Weaknesses

Kansas City Should Dominate AFL

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP) — Earlier this summer Hank Stram said the most pressing question mark facing his Kansas City Chiefs was place kicking.

Either Hank had his tongue in his cheek or his eyes closed.

For the only question Jan Stenerud might present is how far back he can go before he misses on a field goal try.

Stenerud is a rookie from Norway by way of Montana State who is replacing Mike Mercer, the best kicker in the American Football League last season. He booted a 59-yard field goal in college and threatens to kick some long ones, if not quite that long, for the Chiefs.

But if Stram, at the time he made the statement, really felt that was the Chiefs' most pressing problem, it showed how well off Kansas City is compared with all the other teams in the league which were, and still are, worrying about quarterbacks, tackles, linebackers, corner backs and anything else you care to name.

The Chiefs' prestige was slightly tarnished in their 35-10 Super Bowl loss to Green Bay last January, but their reputation as by far the best team in the AFL still stands.

They've proved it already by crushing Oakland, their No. 1 rival in the Western Division, 48-0 and then trouncing the Chicago Bears of the National League 66-24, both within five days in exhibition play.

Preseason games might not have much importance, but it is fair to say the outcome of those contests was significant.

"I think we're better now than we were a year ago," Stram said, offering an ominous note to the other AFL teams. "We've had more quality competition this year than ever before."

What he means is the Chiefs have greater depth than before, and adding depth to the Chiefs is like giving an octopus another arm.

In the backfield Kansas City has Len Dawson, the league's leading quarterback in 1966; Mike Garrett, second best rusher; Curt McClinton, eighth in rushing, and spare running back Bert Coan, ninth in rushing.

Coan spells Garrett while McClinton's replacements will be Gene Thomas and Aaron Brown, who has been converted from a defensive lineman. Fullbacks don't come much bigger than Brown, who stands 6-feet-5 and weighs 265.

For receivers, Dawson has split end Chris Burford and flanker Otis Taylor, who each caught 58 passes last season, plus tight end Fred Arbanas, one of nine men the Chiefs placed on the All-Star team.

The rest of the offensive line consists of tackles Jim Tyrer and Dave Hill, guards Ed Budde and Curt Merz and center Jon Gilliam, who apparently has completely recovered from a knee operation.

Defensively, the Chiefs are as strong as anyone and stronger than most. The front four includes ends Jerry Mays and Chuck Hurston plus tackles Buck Buchanan and Andy Rice or Ed Lothamer.

The linebacking is extremely rugged with Bobby Bell, Sherrill Headrick and E. J. Holub holding down the starting spots and rookies Willie Lanier and Jim Lynch providing good back-up protection.

The secondary has a new face, corner back Fletcher Smith, only because Fred Williamson broke his arm. It's just possible, though, that Williamson will have a tough time getting back into the line-up when he returns.

The three returning starters are cornerback Willie Mitchell and safeties Johnny Robinson and Bobby Hunt, the latter two the top pass interceptors in the league last year, each grabbing 10.

And to top everything off, the Chiefs have discovered a kick return artist named Noland Smith, who is only 5-foot-6¼ and who has scored several touchdowns in exhibition games on punt and kickoff returns of better than 70 yards.

Then there's Stram's sew Tight End I formation . . . but by this time Kansas City's opponents have to cry too much.

Ohio Is Host To Ladies Big Golf Classic

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Veteran Mickey Wright, who holds more tournament victories than any other feminine swinger, is favored to successfully defend her ladies' World Series of Golf title here this weekend.

But the five other women who make up the field for the $32,000 tournament will shoot the works in a bid to grab the $10,000 first prize money.

Firing starts at 1:30, EDT, Saturday in the 36-hole medal play test over the par 72, 6,101-yard Snyder Park golf course.

The 31-year-old Miss Wright, rated perhaps the greatest woman golfer of all time, scored an easy victory here in the first Ladies Professional Golf Association World Series with a 136 total.

That was four strokes better than runner-up Sandra Haynie of Fort Worth, Tex., who picked up $7,500 for her second-place finish.

The line-up for the World Series is virtually the same as a year ago except that Susie Maxwell, fourth in official money winnings on the LPGA tour, replaces Sandra Spuzich of Indianapolis.

Miss Wright's stiffest challenge is likely to come from Kathy Whitworth, the 28-year-old San Antonio, Tex., golfer who has won more than $22,000 this year to top the official money list.

Carol Mann, the towering 6-foot-3 pro who finished third in last year's World, one stroke better than Miss Whitworth, and Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., round out the field.

Vern Law's Retirement Announced

PITTSBURGH (AP) — To those on the Pittsburgh Pirates who knew him well, Vernon Law's retirement came as no surprise.

Weary and aching after 16 seasons, most of them with a losing club, Law, 37, no longer possessed the ability which once vaulted him to the pinnacle of his profession.

Law, winner of only two games this year for seventh-place Pittsburgh, plagued by arm trouble and hobbled by a groin injury, announced Thursday he was calling it quits.

Law led the Pirates' pitching staff for most of his 16 years — 10 of them in the second division — and in 1960 carried them to a World Series victory and won the Cy Young award as baseball's best pitcher.

2 Local Youths See Browns Drill At Hiram Camp

Two East Liverpool youngsters got a good look at the Cleveland Browns training camp Thursday at Hiram.

Jeff Fellouzis and Mike Dauka were guests of Browns defensive line coach Nick Skorich who is a friend of Jeff's father Emanuel Fellouzis.

They watched the Browns work out as they prepared for their exhibition game with the Green Bay Packers Saturday night at Cleveland.

Both Jeff and Mike play in the Little League football program here.

Fog Hurts Amateur Golfers

By FRANK PITMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Some phrases and words, most unprintable, to enrich golfdom's colorful vocabulary are flowing from the 67th U.S. Amateur Championship over the Broadmoor Wast's fog-bound, wind-blown, water-logged links.

Bob Dickson of McAlester, Okla., the reigning British Amateur king, was gracious and happy after posting his one-over par 71 to take a three-stroke lead in Thursday's partly completed first round.

Consequently his original contribution to golf grammar was negligible.

Bristling, descriptive phrases about the mounain-rimmed 6,946-yard par 35-35—70 course cascaded from the lips of players like former champion Bob Murphy — a 77 shooter — and Bill Harvey, the 36-year-old Divie Amateur champion.

Murphy, the 1965 winner of this tourney from Nichols, Fla., opened his post-round discussion with sportswriters by throwing his shoes across the locker room.

But then every player coming off the misty, fog-shrouded course into the locker room first yanked off his soaked shoes and wrenched the water from his socks.

That seemed to release some of the frustrations accumulated during three interruptions in play caused by drifting clouds of fog that blanked out the greens and fairways at various times during trying day.

Harvey's graphic opinions reflected his sentiments after posting a 78 to replace his 71 opening round until it was washed out.

Better things were promised today for the second round. The Weather Bureau forecast clearing skies and a high of around 70 degrees, up about 25 degrees from Thursday.

Thursday night he addressed 2,300 WVU freshmen in the university fieldhouse. Harlow told the first - year students only the courageous and well - educated will reap the benefits of our society.

Junior Editors Quiz on NEW MONEY

QUESTION: How is new money made?

ANSWER: United States coins come from federal mints in Philadelphia and Denver, Colo. Bullion, meaning gold and silver, is brought to the mint. After being purified and hardened with the addition of copper, it is cast into bars. Blanks, called planchets are then made and fed into stamping machines which can turn out 90 big coins or 120 smaller ones in a minute. All coins are made in the same way irrespective of the denomination or metal content. Paper money is made under the strict supervision of the Treasury Department, which alone is authorized to issue it. Artists draw the designs which are then copied on soft plates by engravers. The plates are made into rolls, which, after various hardening processes, are then used to print the bills in groups of 12. Check these important things on a bill: (1) the Federal Reserve Seal with a letter, (2) the serial number of the bill, (3) the green Treasury Seal.

ANSWER: United States coins come from federal mints in Philadelphia and Denver, Colo. Bullion, meaning gold and silver, is brought to the mint. After being purified and hardened with the addition of copper, it is cast into bars. Blanks, called planchets are then made and fed into stamping machines which can turn out 90 big coins or 120 smaller ones in a minute. All coins are made in the same way irrespective of the denomination or metal content. Paper money is made under the strict supervision of the Treasury Department, which alone is authorized to issue it. Artists draw the designs which are then copied on soft plates by engravers. The plates are made into rolls, which, after various hardening processes, are then used to print the bills in groups of 12. Check these important things on a bill: (1) the Federal Reserve Seal with a letter, (2) the serial number of the bill, (3) the green Treasury Seal.
